REPLY OF GERMANY TO THE ALLIES IS READY

REOPENING OF STREET RAILWAY SERVICE IN WINNIPEG CONSIDERED

Meeting Set for Late To-day; New Post Office Force Is Increased; Leaders of Strike Make Efforts to Enlist-Sympathy of Unions Elsewhere

Winnipeg, May 28.—Efforts of the leaders of the general strike movement in Winnipeg to enlist the sympathy of unions in other cities were the outstanding development in the local situation this morning. Ernest Robinson, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council, said that communications had been received from unions throughout Canada and at least one important union in Great Britain.

Dominion Government officials who had denounced the strike leaders as revolutionists said they were not alarmed at the efforts to obtain sympathetic support. They pointed out that ten days ago the newspaper of the strike forces here officially announced that the Calgary strike would be general. At the Council meeting Monday night a labor representative said the Calgary walk-out was general. Press dispatches yesterday and to-day directly contradicted this.

The new post office force which replaced the striking clerks was increased to-day. Railway service to and from Winnipeg is normal. The question of an immediate resumption of street car service in Winnipeg will be determined at a meeting to be held late to-day.

Toronto Arranges Conference.
Toronto, May 28.—Mayor Church, following strike conference last night, dispatched the following telegram to Sir Robert Borden early this morning:

"Following your very kind suggestion, a long conference of workers and employers was held this evening. No firm solution was arrived at. The meeting decided to take advantage of your very kind efforts of intervention. A deputation of all concerned will proceed to Ottawa Wednesday evening for an interview on Thursday. In the meantime the general strike has been postponed until Friday morning at 10 o'clock pending the result of negotiations with you. I have assured the employers and the employees that the conference with you will take place Thursday without fail. Please confirm appointment."

(Signed) "T. L. Church, Mayor, at Calgary."

Calgary, May 28.—The third day of the Calgary strike finds several additions to the strikers' ranks, but organized labor is still far from being solidly lined up. The plumbers, steamfitters and teamsters are out, as well as the postal employees.

The freight handlers followed the lead of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, with which union they are affiliated, and voted against coming out. (Concluded on page 4.)

GERMANS ANXIOUS TO RENEW THEIR TRADE RELATIONS WITH ITALY

Milan, May 28.—Immense quantities of German products are stored in warehouses at Chiasso, on the frontier between Italy and Switzerland, and it is supposed by Germany to renew immediately her commercial relations with Italy, according to Ulysses Bywater, of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

HARRIS SPEAKS OF TRADE OF CANADA

Efforts Needed, Says Head of Canadian Trade Mission in London

Ottawa, May 28.—That Canada would be in a better condition than any other country in the world if she could during the next three years maintain her export trade at its present high level was the opinion expressed by Lloyd Harris, head of the Canadian Trade Mission in London, in the course of a talk with representatives of the press to-day. Mr. Harris pointed out that during 1914 the export trade of the Dominion amounted to $455,000,000. In 1918, owing to war business, it grew to $1,286,000,000. While he did not think it would be possible to maintain this volume of export business, he indicated that the success of the Dominion depends in a large measure upon its ability to take advantage of trade within the Empire, with neutral countries and with countries which participated in the war and which now must undergo a process of reconstruction.

Mr. Harris said that in his opinion it is up to Canada to buy as heavily as possible from Great Britain. No other country contributed so much to the winning of the war, and this should not be forgotten. Besides the purchase of such goods as Great Britain has to sell would help the shipping situation by providing return cargoes for vessels carrying Canadian products to the mother country.

BOLSHEVIKI CLAIM THEY DO NOT PLAN TO EVACUATE PETROGRAD

London, May 28.—A Russian Bolshevik wireless message to-day, denies the report that explosions had occurred in Petrograd due to its approaching evacuation. The dispatch declares there is no intention of abandoning the city and that reinforcements already sent to the Gatchina front, south of Petrograd, are succeeding in driving back the enemy.

WAR EXPENDITURE INQUIRY IN STATES

Washington, May 28.—Plans of the Republican leaders of the House for the investigation of the expenditures of the War Department took definite form to-day when Representative Graham, of Illinois, prepared a resolution providing for appointment of a special committee of fifteen members to conduct such an inquiry. Immediate consideration will be asked.

PAMPHLETS SEIZED

Eureka, Cal., May 28.—Three packages of I. W. W. propaganda literature were seized at the express office here by local authorities, acting on orders received from the Department of Justice. It was said one package had come from Spokane, another from Chicago and the third from Superior, Wis.

TO PRESENT TERMS TO AUSTRIANS FRIDAY

Allies Are Expected to Deliver Treaty at Noon That Day

Paris, May 28.—The Austrian peace treaty, the newspapers here say, will include clauses on the League of Nations similar to those which are a part of the peace terms presented to Germany.

The Austrian treaty will be presented Friday at noon.

A dispatch from Paris last night said that although arrangements had been made to present the treaty to the Austrian delegates Friday, all efforts by the Peace Conference to reach a decision relative to the southern negotiations of Austria had been delayed because of the position of the Italian delegation.

N. C-4 TO CONTINUE FLIGHT TO-MORROW

American Airmen Hope to Fly From Lisbon to Plymouth

Washington, May 28.—The American naval seaplane N. C-4 will leave Lisbon for Plymouth, Eng., on the last leg of the trans-Atlantic flight early to-morrow morning, weather permitting, according to a dispatch received at the Navy Department to-day from Lieut.-Commander Albert C. Read, commander of the plane.

Plymouth, May 28.—The news of the flight of the American seaplane N. C-4 from Ponta Delgada, Azores, to Lisbon in Plymouth, which is to be the final destination of the big aircraft in its trip from Newfoundland to the United Kingdom.

GOVERNMENT GRANT FOR SMELTING TEST

Cabinet Voted $2,000 For Demonstration of Cheap Electric Process

After hearing representations this morning, the Provincial Cabinet decided to authorize financial aid to the extent of $2,000 towards the cost of conducting a demonstration of iron ore smelting by an improved electrical process.

Mr. Fraser, of the Vancouver Magnetic Iron and Steel Smelting Company, Limited, and Mr. Fleet, an electrical engineer associated and under an arrangement with the firm, composed the delegation and made the request.

Mr. Fleet is the originator of an electric furnace which he asserts is capable of producing pig iron at $13.55 per ton, a figure he also declares that can be reduced to as low as $11.00 per ton with a larger plant.

It was while engaged on the work of investigation into iron ore smelting by the electrical process for the Canada Copper Company that Mr. Fleet first conceived the idea of his improved furnace.

One month will be required for the preparation of the plant to conduct the test, and Mr. Fleet informed the members of the Cabinet that his furnace is of the continuous operating type with a testing capacity of 1,000 pounds of ore of 500 pounds pig per hour.

The grant, of course, is to be applied purely to the testing out process and will be arranged for immediately.

PROTEST IMMEDIATELY

London, May 27.—The British and Eastern Ministers at Warsaw have protested against the Polish offensive in East Galicia, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Vienna by way of Copenhagen.

ALLIED LEADERS GRAPPLE WITH ADRIATIC QUESTION

Paris, May 28.—The Council of Four of the Peace Conference is making a determined effort to settle the Italian question to-day. Andre Tardieu, of the French delegation, has framed a formula which is understood to follow generally the lines of a compromise proposed by Colonel E. M. House and considered last week.

Colonel House, Captain Tardieu and Premier Orlando were present at the meeting of the Council this forenoon.

INTREPID AIRMEN ARE GIVEN HONORS

Hawker and Grieve Decorated in London; Americans Honored in Lisbon

London, May 28.—Harry Hawker and Lieut.-Commander Mackenzie Grieve, who reached here yesterday from Thurso, Scotland, after being rescued in mid-ocean when the aeroplane in which they were attempting to cross the Atlantic had alighted near the Danish steamship Mary, were received at Buckingham Palace to-day by King George, who bestowed on them the insignia of the Air Force Cross. They are the first actual recipients of this Order.

The Cross is a new honor which is bestowed for "devotion to duty."

Americans Honored.

London, May 28.—The crew of the American seaplane N. C-4, which made the first trans-Atlantic aerial passage, landing at Lisbon last evening from the Azores, has been decorated with the Grand Cross of the Order of the Tower and Sword, says a message to the Wireless Press from Lisbon. The decoration was presented by the Portuguese Foreign Minister.

CITY TAX SALE STARTED TO-DAY

Corporation Begins Disposition of Huge Amount of Property

With a considerable crowd filling the Council Chamber the city tax sale commenced this morning at ten o'clock. As $900,000 in arrears is involved, it is expected that the disposition of the various properties will take three or four days. It is the intention of City Treasurer Edwin Smith to adjourn the sale on Friday and resume the disposition of land on Monday, bids being received from nine to twelve and from two to four o'clock.

Land in the Oaklands, Hillside and Victoria West districts were involved in this morning's sale. Thirty-eight parcels were purchased by bidders, while the corporation took over fifty-four parcels. It is expected, however, that a considerable proportion of the latter will be bought before the end of the sale.

The total receipts for this morning's sale were $7,579.55, to be paid in by private bidders.

Paris, May 28.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day adopted a resolution providing for the nomination of a special committee of sixty members for consideration of the peace treaty.

Luxemburg People Wish Their Country to Be Free State

Luxemburg, May 27.—Via London, May 28.—Secretary of State Reuter to-day read in the Chamber of Deputies a letter from President Wilson, inviting a Luxembourg delegation to go to Paris. He said the delegation was ready to leave to-night for Paris to tell the Peace Conference that the people of Luxembourg wish their country to remain autonomous and to conclude an economic union with France or Belgium, or if that should be found impossible, to open negotiations with those two countries to learn their conditions.

He added that the Government also asked that Luxembourg be admitted to the League of Nations.

INTERNATIONAL RULES FOR AIRMEN

Aeronautical Commission of Peace Conference Approves Draft Prepared

Paris, May 28.—The Aeronautical Commission of the Peace Conference has agreed to accept the draft of an international convention and its annexes, subject to minor amendments.

The convention itself deals with the following matters:

The nationality and registration of aircraft.

General principles governing the rights of international certificates of air worthiness and competency.

Principles governing flight over foreign territory.

Rules to be observed on departure or landing and when under way.

Prohibition of the carriage of certain objects.

An international commission for air navigation.

Technical Details.

Final provisions.

Technical details are relegated to an annex and dealt with in the following order:

The marking of aircraft.

Certificates of air worthiness, Logbooks.

Rules as to lights and signals and rules of the air.

Certificates of competency, including medical requirements.

International maps and ground marks.

Metereological information.

Customs.

To Council.

The Aeronautical Commission of the Peace Conference grew out of the international convention on aerial navigation which was called by the French Government in March quite independently of the Peace Conference itself. The convention drawn up by it will be submitted to the Supreme Council as part of the work of the Peace Conference.

EMPIRE EXHIBITION

London, May 28.—Representatives of the Dominions are supporting the proposal of the British Empire Club that a great exhibition of the products of the Empire be held in London in the summer of 1921 to promote trade within the Empire. The Government will be approached for sanction and a large and representative organization committee appointed.

Cameroon Area and Togoland to Be Under League Mandatory

Paris, May 28.—The attention drawn to the arrangement under which France and Great Britain were to divide Cameroon and Togoland between themselves without any relation to the League of Nations has caused a reconsideration of this plan and a territorial redistribution of these regions will be brought under a mandatory of the League.

Seem to Think They Should Make Effort to Offset Huge Amount Allies Have Assessed Against Germany; Several Other Proposals

Versailles, May 28.—The German counter-proposals to the peace terms delivered by the Allies are expected to be ready this afternoon. The time limit will expire to-morrow.

Nothing has developed as yet to indicate definitely what the German Commissioners will do in case the Entente adheres firmly to its original project.

Versailles, May 28.—The German peace delegation here, it was learned to-day, will present a counter-claim for 12,850,000,000 marks about ($3,212,500,000 at the pre-war normal rate of exchange), for damages from the Allied blockade as an offset to the reparation demands of the Allied Powers.

FEARS GERMANS MAY ATTACK POLAND

Paris, May 28.—Fear of a German attack upon Poland was expressed to-day by Ignace Jan Paderewski, the Polish Premier, who arrived in Paris from Warsaw last night. He said the Germans were active in a preparatory way and might strike in several places.

The reports of pogroms in Poland were denied by the Premier. He declared such reports were pure German propaganda.

With regard to the Ukrainian situation, the Premier asserted that the recent fighting had been brought on by the Ukrainians, who signed the armistice May 11 and then attacked the Poles at two places on May 12.

ATTACK ON COST OF LIVING URGED

Shipping.

It is proposed that the German fleet be transferred to an international trust, managed by the Americans and controlled by the League of Nations. The trust would be given the mercantile fleets of all the other maritime nations and every nation would be represented in the central administration in a manner corresponding to the nation's tonnage. Germany announces her readiness to hand over fifty per cent. of her mercantile fleet.

Besides, in conformity with the proposition made by the former director of the Hamburg-American Line, Germany will pledge herself to build at her own expense, in her own dockyards and by her own workmen, the number of ships necessary to compensate for the diminution in the world's tonnage due to Germany's submarine warfare. In return Germany will ask to be allowed large credits for payment for raw materials required to carry out the undertaking and to be allowed to give in payment some of her own raw or manufactured goods.

As regards the cable-lines, Germany will suggest a system of internationalization. (Concluded on page 4.)

Vancouver Grand Jury Says Governments Should Grapple With Problem

Vancouver, May 28.—"While we are glad to observe an absence of any signs of widespread crime, we think it right to place on record our belief that a serious state of unrest is prevalent among the masses of the people," is the concluding paragraph of the presentment made to Mr. Justice Gregory by the grand jury at the Assizes here yesterday afternoon.

"Believing as we do that such unrest is due in a large measure to the privations caused by the increasing prices of the necessities of life, we consider a grave responsibility will attach to any Government refusing or failing to grapple with this problem, and in particular we would deplore any attempt to sidetrack the matter by the appointment of Commissions of inquiry which would leave the interests of the classes now benefitting by higher pay free to continue their exactions at the expense of the masses of the people."

TYPHUS PLAGUE MUST BE FOUGHT

Raging in Eastern and Southern Europe; Red-Cross League Ready

Paris, May 28.—(Associated Press.)—The League of Red-Cross Societies, in announcing the spread of typhus in Poland, says that "although officially organized only three weeks ago by representatives of Red-Cross Societies of Britain, the United States, France, Italy and Japan, the League is prepared to begin work at once."

"Reports from Poland and from other afflicted parts of Eastern and Southern Europe picture the sufferings there as beyond comparison. Thousands are dying for lack of medical care and there is a serious scarcity of all medical necessaries."

"The menace to the rest of the world," says the League, "is fully appreciated by the Supreme Economic Council, which has reports from various sources regarding the rapid spread of typhus and the necessity of taking immediate action to prevent the spread of contagion further west."

GERMANS ANXIOUS TO RENEW THEIR TRADE RELATIONS WITH ITALY

Milan, May 28.—Immense quantities of German products are stored in warehouses at Chiasso, on the frontier between Italy and Switzerland, and it is supposed by Germany to renew immediately her commercial relations with Italy, according to Ulysses Bywater, of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

LEAGUE IS FORMED

New Move in Vancouver Looks to Betterment of Conditions

Vancouver, May 28.—To discharge the community's full duty to the citizen veterans and their dependants; to federate all the existing community service agencies, and to evolve a working basis of co-operative action on all matters of direct interest to the community as a whole.

With the above platform was launched last night at a meeting in the O'Brien Hall here an attempt to give Vancouver a Repatriation and Community Service League. Mr. Justice Murphy, chairman of the meeting, on motion of Father O'Boyle, seconded by George Hardy, of the Carpenters' District Council, selected a committee of fifteen members to draw up a plan for the federation of every public body in Vancouver, into one vast community service organization and for the welding into a powerful unit the community spirit of the city.

The committee selected by Mr. Justice Murphy is as follows: Father O'Boyle, George Hardy, J. H. McVety, L. A. Walker, George Harrison, Chris Spencer, Blake Wilson, Mrs. de Pencier, Mrs. Enthoven, Mrs. Schooley, Harry Senkler, K. C. Campbell, Sweeney, F. W. In a Paris dispatch yesterday it was erroneously stated that the Council of Four had decided to maintain the blockade of Germany until a regular Government based on a free and popular mandate was set up. The dispatch in question referred to the decision regarding Hungary.

CROWDS IN LISBON
WELCOMED N.C-4

American Plane Arrived There From the Azores Yesterday Evening

Washington, May 28.—The American naval seaplane N.C-4 arrived at Lisbon, Portugal, last evening at 8.01 o'clock Greenwich time (1.01 p. m. Victoria time), completing the first trans-Atlantic flight. The ship made the distance from Ponta Delgada to Lisbon in nine hours and 44 minutes, making her actual flying time in crossing the Atlantic from Newfoundland 26 hours and 41 minutes.

Welcomed by Crowds. A dispatch from Lisbon last night said the achievement of the trans-Atlantic air flight, with Lisbon as the first European stopping place, had aroused the enthusiasm of the Portuguese as no event had stirred them for many years. When the American seaplane N.C-4 arrived over the Tagus River last evening, the populace, crowding all places of vantage, gave full expression to its enthusiasm by cheers of welcome, the booming of guns and the ringing of bells.

For days the people of Lisbon had been awaiting the completion of this momentous voyage over the Atlantic, and, though disappointed from day to day through the inability of Commander Reed's craft to continue its flight because of unfavorable weather conditions, yet each day they looked hopefully toward the west for the coming of the plane.

Early in the day word was flashed that the N.C-4 had started, and at intervals there were bulletins of the progress made. The whole of Lisbon was en fete, and during the latter hours virtually all business was abandoned by those who crowded everywhere to witness the arrival.

Near Cruiser. Guided by skillful hands, the plane, which had covered the distance between the protecting destroyers along the route with clocklike regularity, swept in over Lisbon and settled down gracefully near the American cruiser Rochester.

It was not forgotten by many of those who witnessed the triumph that another man, equally stout-hearted, Hawker, an Australian, was being welcomed in England on his return from a wonderful trans-Atlantic flight, more spectacular, but not so successful, and there was praise for both.

The crew of the N.C-4 arrived in Lisbon all well. The engines worked splendidly and there was no untoward incident of any kind.

VANCOUVER POSTMEN REMAIN AT WORK

Vancouver, May 28.—Radical labor leaders who had been openly laying the foundation for a general strike in Vancouver received a rude jolt when the postal workers went on record as against a sympathetic strike.

A meeting of the postal workers was called to discuss the Winnipeg situation. It was the sense of the meeting that the best interests of the members of their organization could be served by remaining at their post of duty and thus being in a position to discuss with the Government the question of the reinstatement of their striking associates in Winnipeg and Calgary.

Strong exceptions were taken to the statement of Senator Robertson regarding the Winnipeg situation, in which he is declared to have said that the Winnipeg postal workers went out on the eve of a settlement admittedly satisfactory. "In view of the fact that no one can know the basis of settlement until the reclassification bill is tabled in Parliament, this assertion is absurd," reads the record of the meeting.

ROBERTSON'S ESTIMATE READY TO FEED OF WINNIPEG STRIKE

Labor Minister Says Movement Deserves No Sympathy From Outside

Calgary, May 23.—Mayor Marshall at Calgary yesterday received the following telegram from Senator Gideon Robertson, Minister of Labor, which the latter sent from Winnipeg: "Replying to your telegram, I would say, I have been here since Thursday last and have very carefully considered the causes of the existing general strike, which the Strike Committee claimed was called for the purpose of forcing upon certain employers recognition of the workmen's right of collective bargaining."

"The employers affected provided conclusively that they had no objection to their employees organizing themselves, and these employers have dealt with committees of their employees elected as representatives of various craft unions concerning their industry. "The employers furthermore have expressed perfect willingness to meet and confer with executive officers of the various organizations if desired, but they refused to deal with a body known as the Metal Trades Council, which is elected by other employees outside of their own."

"Twenty-four hours before the sympathetic strike was called the Premier of Manitoba issued the Premier of the matters in dispute by arbitration, and in a final attempt to avert a general strike asked the committee if it would cancel the strike provided the employers would agree to recognize the Metal Trades Council. To this question a negative reply was given. "Subsequent events have proven conclusively that the motive behind the general strike effort was for the purpose of assuming control and direction of industrial affairs and of municipal, Provincial and Federal activities so far as they are being carried on in this city, and with the avowed intention of extending that control to a wider field. "I have no hesitation in saying that the 'One Big Union' movement is the underlying cause of the whole trouble, and that the Winnipeg general strike deserves no sympathy or support from the labor organizations outside of Winnipeg."

READY TO FEED PETROGRAD PEOPLE

Allies Will Act Soon as Bolsheviks Have Been Expelled

London, May 23.—The Allied and Associated Powers have made arrangements to feed Petrograd and render assistance to the starving population after the expulsion of the Bolsheviks. Herbert C. Hoover, the head of the Allied relief organization, has the details in hand. It is hoped that relief will be in the city within thirty-six hours after the Bolsheviks withdraw.

A dispatch received in London from Copenhagen yesterday said: "The sound of a heavy bombardment has been heard within the last few days from the direction of Petrograd and Kronstadt, according to advices received from Viborg."

"The advisers report a panic among the Bolshevik leaders in Petrograd, a number of whom, it is asserted, have fled with state funds. "Petrograd, according to the report, is in the hands of Chinese, Lettish and Finnish Reds, who are said to have mastered the Soviet authorities after heavy street fighting. Workmen are patrolling the workingmen's district to prevent the Chinese from pillaging. The Bolsheviks have placarded the city, threatening to execute the bourgeois class if they are compelled to leave the former capital."

Peterhof. Washington, May 23.—Capture of Peterhof, sixteen miles west of Petrograd, on the Gulf of Finland, by the army of the Northern Russian Government, probably assisted by British naval forces, was reported to the State Department yesterday in Swedish press reports. The Stockholm Tidningen pointed out that the report presaged the fall of Petrograd in the near future. While expressing the belief that the report of the capture of the town of Peterhof might be slightly premature, the Stockholm paper pointed out that its loss by the Bolshevik forces would mean the isolation of Petrograd from Kronstadt, from which the Bolshevik warships had been operating. Fugitives from Petrograd arriving in Helsinki have reported that machine guns have been placed on the roofs of houses in Petrograd and that hostages have been taken in large numbers. A Lithuanian dispatch received yesterday said Riga was captured last Thursday, through the co-operation of Lettish troops and German Baltic guards."

Kolchak Advancing. Paris, May 23.—Dispatches received in Paris yesterday announced that the reverse suffered by the forces of Admiral Kolchak, anti-Bolshevik commander in Russia, was only temporary and that Kolchak's armies again were advancing against the Bolsheviks, who were falling back on the Volga line."

E. R. CAVERLY TAKEN BACK TO VANCOUVER

Seattle, May 23.—E. R. Caverly, formerly a bank clerk at Vancouver, who is charged with having absconded with approximately $14,000 worth of Canadian Victory Bonds last December, was brought to Seattle last night by Detective McArthur, who is returning him to the Canadian city. Caverly was arrested at Louisville, Ky. He is alleged to have disposed of some of the Bonds in Seattle while passing through here on his way south. He will be taken to Vancouver to-day.

BRAVE AVIATORS GREETED IN LONDON

Great Crowds Enthusiastically Welcomed Harry Hawker and Grievé

London, May 23.—Harry G. Hawker and Lieut.-Commander Mackenzie Grievé were given a remarkable reception on their arrival in London last night from Northern Scotland, where they were landed on Monday morning. Such enthusiasm as was shown in the greeting of the two intrepid aviators probably never has been exceeded, except in coronation times.

The crowds began gathering early in the afternoon along the route from the railway station to the Aero Club, where Hawker and Grievé were formally welcomed on behalf of London. When the train pulled into the station the entire line along which the procession was to pass was jammed with cheering people.

Cheers for Mrs. Hawker. A foretaste of the great welcome that the aviators were to receive came during the afternoon when Mrs. Hawker went to the railroad station to proceed to Grantham to meet her husband. The throng about the station loudly cheered the plucky little woman, who never gave up confidence that her husband ultimately would be rescued.

Headed by an Australian band and a body of Australian troops, Hawker and Grievé passed through the densely-packed streets on the way to the Aero Club. The first official welcome was accorded the aviators in the station at St. Pancras by the Mayor of London, but still another was given them inside the Aero Club building. Asked whether he would make another attempt to fly across the Atlantic, Hawker said last night: "I don't know. It depends upon the Sopwith firm."

Wireless Needed. The Sopwith aeroplane driven by Hawker on his unsuccessful attempt, started from St. John's with a supply of gasoline of 340 gallons. Half this amount had been used when the aeroplane alighted in the sea near the Danish tramp steamer, the Dannebrog, of the voyage. Lieut.-Commander Grievé said last night that in his opinion the future of aerial navigation lies in the perfection of wireless equipment for aeroplanes by which the machines may be guided.

Description of Flight. In a further statement descriptive of the flight, printed in The Daily Mail, Hawker said he and Grievé were seated the whole time from Newfoundland until the end of the flight in mid-ocean. Grievé, however, moved about. Each of them ate a sandwich and drank four cups of coffee out of a vacuum flask.

"And the next thing I ate," said Hawker, "was about seventy-two hours later. The fact is I was very seasick when we got down low, and afterwards for two days in the ship. "It was like being in a small motorboat in a heavy sea when we flew down to look for a ship, Hawker added. "We were between high waves and were bumped about quite badly."

To Knees in Water. Describing their position when the plane alighted, Hawker and Grievé said they were in water up to their knees and the waves were close to the upper planes at times. The nose of the machine was turned into the wind and now and again a big wave dashed over it.

"I had to laugh," said Hawker, "when one big wave, a really big one, came up under the top plane, which up to that time had been dry and shining. It lifted us right out and I saw the trailing edge of the top plane break clean away. "Hawker said they spent their time discussing how the Mary was handled, and whether she could save the machine and its appliances. All the time the little boat carried by the Sopwith machine was afloat beside the plane, dancing about like a cork.

Hauled Back. "When the ship's boat reached the plane," said Hawker, "she banged right into the machine and we hopped on board. The ship swung a line out and hauled the boat back and we climbed aboard the Mary. "We had been waiting so long that we felt calloused to the whole thing. We had a jolly good feeling when we saw the ship mousing about. Looking for a ship for two hours and being sea-sick the whole time was not very merry and bright. "We certainly had a feeling of thankfulness and relief when we saw the ship," said Grievé. "After that we were all right. The machine was floating well on her general buoyancy. Even the engines held air and there were, of course, also air spaces in the planes and petrol tanks."

Plane Picked Up. St. John's Nfld., May 23.—The Sopwith plane in which Harry Hawker and Lieut.-Commander Grievé attempted to fly across the Atlantic, was picked up in latitude 49.40 north, longitude 29.03 west, by the American ship Lake Charlotville, according to a radio message received by the Furness liner Sachem and relayed here yesterday. The message from the Lake Charlotville was received first by the Furness liner Elstree Grange. In it Captain Elsterson said he had taken aboard parts of the plane and all of the mail it carried, and was proceeding to Falmouth, England.

Dollarton Man Praises Tanlac For Relieving Him of Long Standing Trouble

"I can tell you in a few words what I think about Tanlac; it has made me feel better than I have felt in nineteen years," said J. Lehman, while in the Owl Drug Store recently, at Vancouver. Mr. Lehman lives at Dollarton, B. C., and by occupation is head surveyor for the Dollar Lumber Company, at that place.

"Yes, sir, it is a fact," continued Mr. Lehman; "I feel like I ought to tell everybody about Tanlac for it has done me right ones more. For years my stomach was so badly disordered that I couldn't eat anything without suffering from sour gas, and indigestion afterwards. About ten years ago I lost my appetite and had gotten to where, even the smell of anything to eat, would almost make me get up from the table, and at times the smallest bit of the lighted food, would sour and form gas which would blow me up and make me miserable. I had severe headaches often, and was so nervous most of the time, that the noise of the saw at the mill would almost drive me distracted, and I was hardly able to be on the job at all. I was in such a bad fix I couldn't possibly get one hour of sound sleep at night, and when I would get up in the morning, I was all in and intended to start towards my work. My back was weak and hurt me so, I had to wear a plaster on it all the time, but that did me no permanent good at all. I was in such a terrible condition in every way, I was just about discouraged, for out of all the medicines that I had tried, not one of them did me any real good. "I couldn't help but think that Tanlac was different from most all other medicines, or folks wouldn't praise it so much, so I got a bottle. Almost from the start, I commenced to feel better, and as I continued it, I rapidly improved until now I am glad for meal time to come towards my work. My three square meals a day, enjoy every mouthful, and never have indigestion or any other trouble. All that sour gas is gone, and now what I eat nourishes me in the right way, for my strength and energy has come back, and while I haven't weighted in a long time, I know I have gained several pounds in weight by the way my clothes fit. My nerves are steadier than they were, and my back is so much stronger, I don't have to wear plasters any more. I also sleep better than I did, and when I get up in the morning, I go to my work feeling fine and able to stay on the job, and since Tanlac has just about made me a new man, I will always have a good word for it."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Hart and Douglas—Advt.

MUST CARRY ON PUBLIC SERVICES

Borden Makes Statement in Connection With the Winnipeg Strike Ottawa, May 23.—Dealing with the strike in Winnipeg, Sir Robert Borden said in the Commons yesterday afternoon that if the needs of the people as a whole were to be regarded, a compromise was being made. He said that he could not be permitted when founded upon such reasons as were put forward by the postal employees of Winnipeg. The employees of the public service were to be permitted to strike from the employees of private employers. The service in which public servants were engaged had a direct relationship to the maintenance of law and order.

"In dealing with the situation in Winnipeg," said Sir Robert, "there are certain fundamental considerations which, I hope, will commend themselves to the members of this Parliament, and indeed, to the country as a whole. In the first place, we are absolutely determined that law and order shall be maintained, and that the public service shall be maintained, and that members of the civil service can not be permitted to disturb the public service under the conditions which have arisen."

"The Government expects them to discharge a public duty. They must make their choice as to whether they will serve the public as a whole or well on her general buoyancy. Once and for all, the public service."

Sir Robert was of the opinion that every possible facility should be given for discussion between employers and employees from the making of arrangements which would bring about industrial peace and stabilized conditions, to the end that wasteful employment might be put on one side and other methods substituted to bring about justice and remove any inequality.

Collective Bargaining. After citing the statement made by Senator Robertson in regard to collective bargaining, Sir Robert said that what was called the right of collective bargaining, as it had been interpreted, might have an unfortunate effect on the men who were concerned. It might have the effect of placing them and the labor unions in such a situation that they could not make their bargains except as subject to some central body. The term, collective bargaining should have an exact definition as to what is meant. He hoped to receive a report on the subject from the Hon. the Royal Commissioner not later than June 15. Until then it would be invidious on the part of the Government to attempt to anticipate the statement of the Commissioner.

Paces Desired. He hoped that in Canada it would be possible to arrange between employers and employees so that misunderstandings would be done away with. The representatives of the powers had met at Paris engaged upon the task of establishing such a unity of nations as would make war impossible, and surely they should be able to bring about such a better understanding between capital and labor of the viewpoints, one of

KEEP THE POT BOILING.

By this time the people of Victoria, Esquimalt, and Vancouver Island as a whole should be fully conversant with the dry-dock controversy. Even the school boy and girl have doubtless learned that a naval base at Esquimalt—modernized from time to time as demanded by the march of progress—is part of a definitely decided national policy.

We shall expect that when the Prime Minister has doffed his Peace Conference clothes and the atmosphere which naturally goes with them, and again takes up the more domestic tasks that await him, a refreshed memory on the dry-dock question will be very promptly followed by the right sort of action.

THE MOTIVE BEHIND.

In his message to the Mayor of Calgary, printed elsewhere in this issue, Hon. G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, says in part:

"Twenty-four hours before the sympathetic strike was called the Premier of Manitoba urged an adjustment of the matters in dispute by arbitration, and, in a final attempt to avert a general strike, asked the committee if they would cancel the strike provided the employers would agree to recognize the Metal Trades Council.

"Subsequently, events have proved conclusively that the motive behind the general strike effort was for the purpose of assuming control and direction of industrial affairs, also of municipal, Provincial and Federal activities, so far as they are being carried on in this city, and with the avowed intention of extending that control to a wider field.

"I have no hesitation in saying that the 'One Big Union' movement is the underlying cause of the whole trouble, and that the Winnipeg general strike deserves no sympathy or support from the labor organizations outside Winnipeg."

Thus the Minister of Labor, after a thorough investigation of the situation at Winnipeg, finds that the motive behind the general strike was practically the creation of a Bolshevik dictatorship, for the control and direction of industrial affairs, also of municipal, provincial and Dominion activities with the avowed intention of extending that control to a wider field means nothing else.

Such an objective and the principles of organized labor are as far apart as the poles, but the promoters of the Winnipeg trouble are trying to divert the trades unionist movement into channels of lawlessness and chaos, to shackle it to the mad ideas of Lenin and Trotsky. It is not a little surprising that they have been able to deceive and dominate so large a proportion of the organized labor membership of Winnipeg so long.

The revolutionary movement at Winnipeg will fail, no matter how far its ramifications may extend, for the Canadian people will have none of it. But it will have taught certain useful lessons. One is the folly of permitting preachers of disruption and anarchy to enter this country, and of allowing them to carry on their campaign after they come here.

Another lesson is the urgency of Government action relative to the cost of living, profiteering, and other economic disabilities from which the country is suffering. The existence of these produces a condition of mind which greatly assists the propagators of discord. But for these the Bolshevik movement in Winnipeg would not have gained any support, no matter how attractively it was garbed, except from the aliens and other agitators who are not aliens but who should be deported to the countries from which they came just the same.

COMMUNITY SETTLEMENT.

Just about a month has elapsed since active operations commenced in the Courtenay Community Settlement area and reports without exception indicate that the soldier-farmers will make it a success. The removal of stumps and the task of clearing in general is about the most disheartening task the settler has to face.

It is satisfactory to note that the Provincial Land Settlement Board and the Department of Agriculture are actively shepherding the Courtenay scheme, for the quicker it can be demonstrated to Canada as a whole that the community method of soldier and general settlement is economically sound, the sooner will the greater part of the Dominion's reparation problems disappear.

Industries are needed in British Columbia, and until there is a more intensely and evenly distributed settlement on the broad acres of this Province it will be useless to expect very much profitable expansion in the comparatively few congested industrial areas now hugging the coast line.

NO DEFENCE NECESSARY.

Notification from the Federal Government has reached Premier Oliver that the Dolly Varden Mining Company has made an official application to Ottawa for the disallowance of the amended Dolly Varden Mines Railway Act.

If it should develop that the authorities at Ottawa require an explanation from the Legislature of this Province, then an important issue would become immediately involved.

The Legislature of British Columbia cannot permit the invasion of its constitutional rights by the Ottawa Government, and such interference would be resisted to the utmost.

QUITE SO, BUT HOW?

Mr. Lloyd Harris, head of the Canadian Trade Mission in London, is quoted as saying that in his opinion Canada should buy as heavily as possible from Great Britain.

Canada undoubtedly should do this, but we wonder how far Mr. Harris's opinion is shared by Sir Thomas White and the other leaders of the high protectionist school.

There is no use talking about the duty of Canadians to buy British goods as long as the Canadian Government continues its super-tax on the British preference.

THE POLITICAL "BREAKFAST."

Breakfast-table enthusiasm has always seemed to me to be something like "two o'clock in the morning" courage—very difficult to maintain—but I can quite understand that the conditions were exceptional when Mr. Asquith entertained his breakfast-party at the National Liberal Club on Saturday morning.

A STILL STRONGER TIE.

One pleasant result of the war is the closer relations which it has brought about between the English universities and America. Several institutions have engaged to receive parties from our Expeditionary Forces, and it is stated that Oxford is arranging to accommodate about 550 and Cambridge 550 American soldiers in successive groups.

THE TOWER OF BABEL CAN WAIT.

Peace first. It will be time then to call for plans and specifications for the new Tower of Babel, which is to reach unto Heaven, to make men everywhere of one language and to substitute internationalism for nationalism.

WEATHER WAS NOT CAUSE OF FAILURE

Hawker's Plane Could Have Succeeded If Motor Had Not Failed

London, May 28 (Associated Press)—Weather conditions and how his aeroplane ran into strong northeasterly winds, Harry G. Hawker said to a representative of The Daily Mail.

"The weather was no hindrance, and we would have made the flight but for the trouble occasioned by the water boiling in the cooling system of our motor. We could have got through the worst of the weather in a couple of hours."

Wireless a Failure—"The wireless was not a great success," Lieut. Commander Grieve said. "On starting we found the spark very irregular, and only a small amperage obtainable, owing to the understated propeller used to drive it."

"From a navigational point of view I placed no reliance on the wireless other than as a means of asking the positions of such ships as we might pass. The ships previously had been asked by wireless from St. John to make known their position, but they did not see us by day or our lights by night. We saw no vessel, no light was fired. One vessel has reported having seen a light, but the observers on board may have described the red glow of the exhaust."

Cloud Horizon—"We preferred to navigate chiefly by celestial observations, and my position as I worked it out by the stars was virtually correct. I found, when picked up, I was a cloud horizon instead of a sea horizon, as the sun was hardly visible at any time we were in the air. During the first few hours after leaving we passed over fog banks. The clouds were like a sea, giving a perfect horizon. I had only to judge our distance above them and take the sun as a sea horizon."

True East—"Up to 10.15 o'clock we steered to make a true east course, not magnetic. I found we were still setting south, and realizing that a very strong northerly gale must have been blowing, made a decided alteration to the northward and worked the machine up fourteenth fifty degrees north and into the track followed by ships."

Sherbrooke, Que., May 28.—Joseph Gagne, a fourteen-year-old boy, was committed to stand trial on a charge of shooting and killing his employer, Alfonso Pectau, of Lake Champlain, following the hearing of evidence in connection with the crime before Judge Mulvena at Thetford Mines yesterday. ## Uncle Wiggily and the Gentleman Bugs

Copyright, 1918, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By Howard R. Garis.)

"Where's Uncle Wiggily? Oh, where's Uncle Wiggily?" called Baby Bunty in the hollow stump bungalow one morning. "Oh, where can he be, and where is my red hair ribbon?"

"Gracious goodness me, makes alive and some rice pudding cakes!" laughed Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper. "I hope you don't want Uncle Wiggily to hunt for your hair ribbon? You should have put it away nicely folded in your bureau drawer, and then you'd know where it is."

"Yes, I suppose so," sighed Baby Bunty. "But I don't want Uncle Wiggily to help me find my hair ribbon. You'll do that for me, Nurse Jane, I know you will," and she blew a kiss from the tip of her paw to the muskrat lady.

"I want Uncle Wiggily to take me to school in his automobile jitney bus," went on the little rabbit girl who had been found in a hollow stump. "I'll be late if he doesn't take me. Oh, where is he?"

"Out in the woodshed, putting some carrot marmalade on the turnip steering wheel of his auto," answered Nurse Jane. "Run out and tell him you want him to ride you to school. He will, I'm sure, rather than have you ask him to chase you. I'll look for your hair ribbon, and then you'll be all right!"

"Oh, you're such a dear Nurse Jane!" laughed Baby Bunty, as she skipped out to the woodshed.

"I don't know what we're going to do with her," sighed the muskrat lady as she found Baby Bunty's hair ribbon tangled up in the pine cone that the little rabbit girl used to brush her fur. "She is a dear, sweet little thing, but so flighty like, and incomprehensible!"

"Will you ride me to school in your auto?" cried Baby Bunty, as she saw the rabbit gentleman taking a little nibble out of the turnip steering wheel.

"Rather than have you chase me, I will," answered Mr. Longears.

Soon, with her red hair ribbon nicely tied around her ears, Baby Bunty was riding to school in Uncle Wiggily's auto.

"I hope I'll not be late," said the little rabbit girl.

"Oh, I'll set you there on time," spoke Mr. Longears, and then he dusted some pepper on the Bologna sausage tires to make them spiky so they'd go faster.

All of a sudden Baby Bunty, looking straight ahead along the woodland path, cried out:

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily! Be careful!"

"What for?" asked the rabbit gentleman. "I am not going too fast. Do you see a policeman dog?"

"No, but just ahead of us is a big black mud hole! If we run into it we'll spoil your nice, clean auto," said Baby Bunty. "Be careful!"

"So Uncle Wiggily made the machine go more slowly and then, as he came nearer to the black spot in the road, the rabbit gentleman laughed and said:

"Why, Baby Bunty! That isn't mud at all."

"What is it?" asked Baby Bunty.

"It's a lot of black gentleman bugs," answered Mr. Longears.

"Yes, that's what we are," said some voices. "We are about ten thousand gentleman bugs. We are going to meet the lady bugs and take them out for a fly, but we fear we shall be late. We have a long way to go still and the wind is blowing so hard that we cannot fly against it. So we had to settle down here in the road to rest."

"This is good luck!" spoke Uncle Wiggily. "Yesterday we met the red lady bugs and to-day we meet the black gentleman bugs. Crawl up into my auto, gentlemen bugs, and I'll ride you to where you want to go."

"Thank you, kindly, Mr. Longears," spoke the head gentleman bug. Then up they crawled, almost filling the auto so many of them were there. And how polite they were! I just wish you could meet those gentleman bugs! I hope we're not crowding you!"

Mrs. Bruce-Powley, who has been the efficient treasurer of the Great War Next-of-Kin Association for some time past, will shortly leave Victoria to join her husband in Vancouver, and her fellow-workers in the Association have planned to hold a farewell social in her honor following the regular business meeting of the Association on Thursday evening at the Commodore Hall. In order that business may be dispensed with quickly, the regular meeting will commence at 7.30, and is to be followed by a short musical programme. Refreshments will also be served. All members have been asked to attend and married members have been invited to bring their husbands.

The Cadboro Bay Hotel was the scene of a very enjoyable little private dance last night, the occasion being the first of a series given by the Invitation Club. The spacious reception hall was beautifully arranged with flags and masses of purple blossoms, the pink-shaded lights diffusing a soft glow over the scene. About forty couples were in attendance and danced to the alluring strains furnished by Heaton's orchestra until 2 a. m., when the return was made to town by motor. A delicious supper was served under the direction of Mrs. Jenner. Mesdames Gallilher and Pooley acted as hostesses and the guests included: The Misses Montleith, Kitty Fraser, Jean Tolmie, Leslie Gallilher, Lorna MacEachern, Mildred MacEachern, D. Kerr, Betty Gray, E. Humber, A. Robertson, D. Robertson, G. Ward, B. Bodwell, L. Eng, I. Bodwell, L. Durand, B. Eberts, F. McBride, M. Meredith, J. Cameron, D. Moore, M. Campbell, L. Little, A. Green, Blankinship, Gordon Mason, Rugs, McNeill, Rochford and D. C. Grant.

After a severe attack of diphtheria Dr. Kenning has sufficiently recovered to be removed to his home from the Isolation Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Leith and family have returned to their home at New Westminster after visiting Mrs. M. Melloy, of Esquimalt, for a few days.

Under the auspices of the West Saanich Women's Institute, a dance is to be held at the Agricultural Hall at Saanichton on Friday evening, June 3. Professor Heaton's orchestra has been engaged for the occasion, and no effort will be spared to conduce to the comfort and enjoyment of patrons. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Women Members Invited.—Tickets are selling very well for the Canadian Club luncheon to-morrow, when President E. W. Beatty, K. C., of the C. P. R., will speak. The members of the Women's Canadian Club are invited to attend at 12.30 o'clock to hear the speeches. The luncheon will be held at the Empress Hotel.

Members of the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I. O. D. E., who have in hand the arrangements for the garden party to be held at Hatley Park, on June 25, by kind permission of Mrs. James Dunsmuir, journeyed out to the residence to-day to meet their hostess and complete arrangements for the fete. The beautiful grounds have not been open to the public for some time, and as they will at the end of June be in the full beauty of their summer glory, it is expected that the event will attract many visitors.

Butter-Making Demonstration.—T. A. F. Wancko, provincial dairy instructor, will give a buttermaking demonstration to-morrow at 2.30 p. m. in the dairy kindly loaned by Mrs. Phillips, at Garden City, Marigold Station.

"I want rabbit ear soup!" he cried.

"Oh, ho! You do, eh?" snapped back the largest gentleman bug. Then he cried: "Come on all my 10,000 friends, we'll fix this Pipsisewah!"

"Oh, my goodness me! Ten thousand! That is too many for me!" howled the Pip, not knowing it was only 10,000 little gentleman bugs, and thinking it was 10,000 policemen, away ran the Pipsisewah, and he didn't hurt Uncle Wiggily's soup at all.

Then the rabbit gentleman took Baby Bunty to school and rode the gentleman bugs to meet the lady bugs and all was well. And, if the egg beater doesn't take the eyes of the potato to see the head of cabbage dance with the foot of the stairs, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the May basket.

NO PROSPECT OF CHEAPER CLOTHES

English Manufacturers Faced With Rising Cost of Raw Yarn

In view of the continued outcry against the high cost of living, which may be said to include the ever-rising price of clothes, it is interesting to note the following excerpt from a newspaper from Bradford, England. As Bradford is the seat of the woolen trade in Great Britain, the report may be credited as emanating from an authoritative source.

"The price of cloth of the better qualities continues to advance. The reasons given are the growing demands from neutral markets and an anticipated boom when the blockade is entirely removed and the restrictions on exports are taken off.

"There are huge quantities of woolens and woads stocked in Bradford warehouses, though the manufacturers, 80 per cent. of whose output was in account of military material up to the armistice, are booked well ahead for cloth for civilian purposes. It is difficult to get promise of delivery before September or October. The price of yarn, already exorbitant, is still advancing, quotations to-day being well over a pound higher than a fortnight ago. There is little prospect of the prices of cloth declining for a considerable period.

"Before the war a spinner of yarn was content with a profit of 6½d a pound, but he is now getting 5s or 6s, which means that he is taking toll of about 7s 6d a yard on an ordinary 22-oz. worsted coating, which cost about 1s a yard before the war. Cloth which sold retail at about 7s a yard now costs about 36s a yard. It may be taken for granted that so far from the removal of restrictions tending to cheapen cloth it is more likely to make it dearer. There is said to be a great demand from Germany, and a big volume of trade with that country is expected. Japan is also said to be buying heavily."

"IT SHALL BE OURS"

From The Christian Science Monitor.

It is quite impossible to assess the outlook of a nation in dollars or drachmae. The unknown quantity named sentiment, so apparently omitted from the calculations of the foreign office or the counting house, has a way of asserting itself, in the most unexpected and, for that matter, undesired manner, to the no slight discomfiture of the diplomatist or the merchant. It was all very well for Carlyle to fulminate against sentimentalism as a twin sister to cant, but it is not always so very easy to draw the line between sentiment and sentimentalism. And, indeed, in any case generalities are themselves only too generally capable of being classified with cant. The revolt from optimism is pessimism, or vice versa. The pessimist, in his haste, would have cut short Diogenes' search before his lantern was lighted. It threatens to be like that with the diplomatist in Paris weighing the claims of the countrymen of the famous cynic out of Pontus. Item, as the Elizabethan might have said, the Dodecanese.

Latin triumphed over the Greek, the islands were crushed under the heel of Rome. Patmos, for some reason, became a penal colony, to which one day was to come the author of the Apocalypse to triumph over a legally intended death. Of all the islands Kos alone escaped the terrible exactions of the Roman taxgatherer. It owed its immunity to the fame of the great school founded by Hippocrates, a school to which the savants and students of Rome flocked in hundreds. And though to-day the once stately Asklepeion is a ruined ruin, the huge plane tree, which for twenty-five centuries has been putting on and off its leaves, and under whose shades the great Greek wrote and lectured, still survives, its hoary limbs supported on marble propp.

It was not, however, until some eleven hundred years after Hippocrates, to be exact, in 730 A.D., that the islands became known by their present title. The Roman Empire had been split in two. Gregory the Third was Pope. The throne of the Caesars had been removed to Constantinople, and Leo, the Isaurian, ruled the Byzantine Empire. The Hellenic world had come into its own again, and the new military province of the Dodecanese was established, with Rhodes for its capital. Then, again, as the Eastern Empire toppled to its fall, came the centuries of the pirates and the raiders. One after another the ships of the Saracens, the Venetians, the Genoese and the Algerians came plundering, murdering and enslaving, and the Venetians were the worst of all. Palamos, indeed, was left a naked rock, till the Greek came back to repeople it. At last there appeared a new conqueror, the famous Knights Hospitaller. The islands became a vast fortress against the corsairs preying on the eastern trade routes, and more particularly a breakwater against the tide of Muhammadan conquest. At noon, on the 23rd day of May, 1453, Muhammad the Second rode through the breach into the Greek city of Constantinople and the work of massacre began. The horror of that day has never been forgotten, and every Easter the Greek maidens of the Dodecanese sing the Dirge of the City of Constantinople, with its refrain, "Once more in years, it comes to me, it shall be ours." Still the Ottoman tide crept ever nearer. On July the 28th, 1522, the admiral of Suleiman the Magnificent anchored off Rhodes. Five months later, on Christmas Day, after a heroic and historic struggle, Adam de Lesle and his knights surrendered. The terms of the capitulation were generous, and the Dodecanese became an autonomous province under Ottoman suzerainty.

An autonomous province under Turkish suzerainty is, however, a comparative term. Still, on the whole, the Dodecanese maintained their liberties and regained much of their old prosperity in the centuries which followed. Still, when, almost exactly three hundred years after the capture of Rhodes, the Peloponnesus and the Isthmus flared up in rebellion against the nameless atrocities of the Turk, the Dodecanese threw in their lot with that of their fellow-countrymen. From then on there followed an ever-renewing struggle with Constantinople, during which, in spite of many reverses, the islanders held their own. So it was when, in 1912, Italy declared war against Turkey, with the result that, for the second time in their history, the islands passed under the control of Rome. Of the effect of that control there is much to be said, and much that must be said hereafter. But the main point for the present purpose is that these islanders, Greek in every fibre of their being, and Greek in spite of the many vicissitudes of their history, have been once more threatened with an alien flag. The Italian flag waves, as once the pharos of Rhodes lifted itself, above that city. But the

CONSIDER AMERICANS FLIGHT AS ORDINARY

Local Flyers Do Not Think Crew of Seaplanes Took Any Chances

In view of the remarkable performance of Harry Hawker and his intrepid navigator, Lieut.-Commander Grievie, in attempting the trans-atlantic trip in a single-engine two-seater, and also the many sensational flights made by the R. A. F. machines during the war, local flying men do not look upon the achievement of the United States naval seaplane N. C.-4 in reaching Lisbon, as anything but an ordinary trip.

They point out that no element of daring or chance entered into the flight. To ensure one plane reaching Europe a number of machines jockeyed about at the Rockaway beach and three finally took flight. They took off from Trepassey, Newfoundland with favorable weather. At intervals of 50 miles across the Atlantic an American warship was stationed by which the planes were able to set their courses and in case of being forced to take the water would be able to receive repairs and supplies, but in no case were the lives of the crew in jeopardy.

The fact that two of the machines got lost in a fog when approaching the Azores, does not speak very highly of the ability and appliances at the disposal of the navigators in the race, the boys comment. They named a pilot who resides in Victoria, who took a flight in a fog in France flew direct to an objective in Germany, dropped their bombs and returned. The complete trip was made through a fog and later reports showed that they had hit their targets. This is but one instance of how British aviators carried on their work in fogs, through having a wondrous system of navigation at their disposal.

So far the N. C.-4 has made 4,510 miles. From Rockaway beach it flew to Halifax a distance of 616 miles. From Halifax the next leg of the journey was to Trepassey, 523 miles. Then the trans-atlantic flight was started to the Azores of 1,653 miles and from the Azores to Lisbon, 920 miles. The next jump is to Plymouth 892 miles.

If the American flyers had made the flights without the assistance of warships, the local boys would have given them every credit, but some of them say that under these circumstances they would be prepared to take chances in a Camel or any other scout, as their life would be in no danger whatever. They also speak of the marvelous trips of the bombing planes which were often in the air for long stretches. Then there were the trips from England to Egypt and on to India.

Local flyers have every admiration for Hawker and Grievie. They displayed what appeared to be extraordinary courage, but the boys point out that there are a number of other British pilots at Newfoundland now waiting to take practically the same chances. There is not an assisting vessel on the 2,100 miles which must be flown from Trepassey to Ireland, nor will they have the same assistance of directional wireless, which the Yanks had.

The N. C.-4 was the first plane to reach Europe and no doubt will be given credit in some circle of being the pathfinder, but the real hero will be the man who flies unassisted from Newfoundland to Ireland. His feat, however, may not dim the halo of Hawker, as the latter most his determined attempt to beat the Americans and took chances that he probably would not have done had not his opponents approached so near their objective.

Coming Convention One of Most Important in City's History

Frank P. Goss, of the editorial staff of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, who met the editors of the local newspapers yesterday to discuss plans for the reception of the National Editorial Association, was enthusiastic this morning over the coming event.

The session in Victoria will be on August 18, and will be the first occasion on which the association has met on foreign soil, though it is one of the oldest newspaper organizations in the United States. The party is traveling to the Pacific Coast via the Canadian Pacific Railway from Winnipeg, and the return trip will also be made across Canada, via the National Railways.

The Pacific Coast won the convention for this year in competition with such noted convention cities as Boston, New York, Detroit, Denver, Salt Lake City and other large centres. Mr. Goss is of the opinion that Victoria will get the best of this year's convention. The opening sessions of the convention will be held in Portland, commencing August 8, two days' sessions will be held in Seattle, and a one-day session in Victoria on August 18. The election of officers will take place here, and the definite choice made of the next convention city, which, it is tacitly understood, will be Boston.

The special train which will bring the party across Canada provides for 225 reservations apart from the officers who will form the committees in charge. As the Northwestern Editorial Association is meeting about the same time in Seattle, it is expected that another 200 delegates will come to Victoria from that body.

Plans for the entertainment of the visitors in Victoria are under way, and one feature already arranged is an address by Sir Charles Hibbert Pupper, K. C. The Victoria Committee will proceed to Seattle and, at the conclusion of the convention sessions there, will take charge of the delegation, and escort them to Victoria.

Mr. Goss is chairman of the Washington State Press Association and a member of the Seattle Press Club Committee.

COMMUNITY MUSIC AS OFFSET TO "JAZZ"

"Give us more community singing and 'jazz' exhibitions will disappear; at that the follies in dancing, cabaret and so on are just the inevitable manifestation of the energetic organism seeking expression by the manner and route immediately available," says a writer in an Eastern paper.

"This is the obvious reason why city governments looking to improve the moral tone of their community must not overlook the power of music organizations such as civic symphony orchestras. There is almost a responsibility on the shoulders of every city government towards music and to-

BOY DROWNED BEFORE HIS FATHER'S EYES

Boat Upsets in Strong Current; Heroic Rescue By Saanich Man

A drowning accident took place on Saturday evening at Grand Central Lake, Vancouver Island, resulting in the death of Jack Webster, son of W. O. Webster, of Marine Drive, Vancouver. Jack, who was nineteen years of age, was a popular student at the B. C. University. Accompanied by his father and younger brother David, he was engaged in fishing when the boat was dragged into a strong current, the existence of which was unknown to them and upset.

A. M. Green, of Marigold Post Office, Saanich, who was near them, attached his boat to a safety wire which crossed the harbor. Here, too, appropriately enough, was wrought in marble, in the workshop of some unknown master, that glory of the Vatican galleries, the story of Laocoon. When Olympus was still a reality to men, the islands chose from the gods their tutelary deities. Thus Lerus, the home of birds, to whose fields the sisters of Meleager, turned into guinea-fow, were to fly for safety, adopted as its guardian Apollo's sister, the huntress Artemis, Kalimnos and Astropalia, like Rhodes, that he might hurl at the giant Polydotes? As for Kos, to it came one night a shipwrecked son of Asklepios, and thus was founded the great temple of medicine, in whose chambers Lucian was one day to see the priests awaiting and eating the sacred peas.

Meanwhile, Mr. Webster and Jack, he applied first aid, and having resuscitated him, carried him a quarter of a mile through the woods to the hotel.

Mr. Webster and Jack, however, was caught in a side-eddy and brought close to the bank, succeeding in scrambling ashore in an exhausted condition. Jack was borne rapidly away, only his hand being visible above the surface.

D. C. Hutchison, of Hutchison Bros., was a witness of the tragedy, but his attempts to effect a rescue proved futile.

Mr. Hutchison states that the speed of the current in the river made an accident almost certain, and it was evident to him for a few moments before the boat actually overturned that the little craft could hardly weather the rushing water.

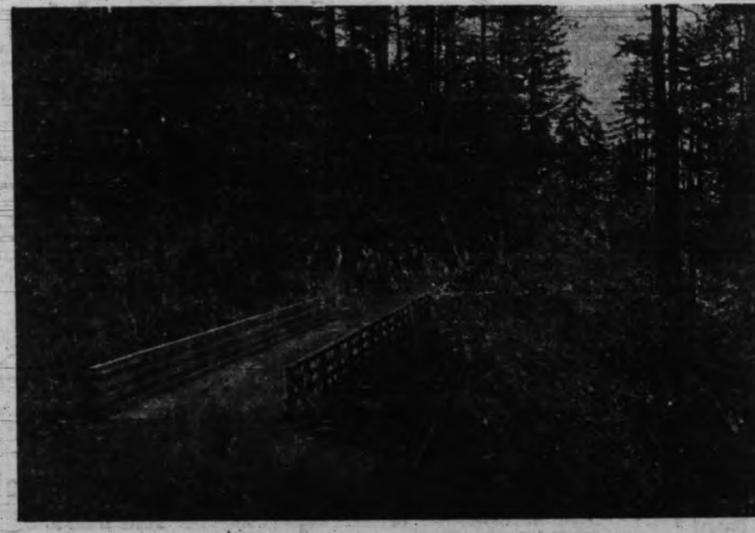

Returning To-day.—The following veterans arrived on the afternoon boat to-day: Ptes. Laidlaw, Appledeve, Speed, Littleton, Savory, Walsh, Gascoine, Ham, Major, and Kirkland.

Judgment Reserved.—Judgment was reserved by Judge Lampman yesterday in the case of Cronk vs. Barker, a case wherein plaintiff claims $900 to cover damages sustained in an automobile accident which occurred last March. F. C. Elliott appeared for Cronk and C. L. Harrison for Barker.

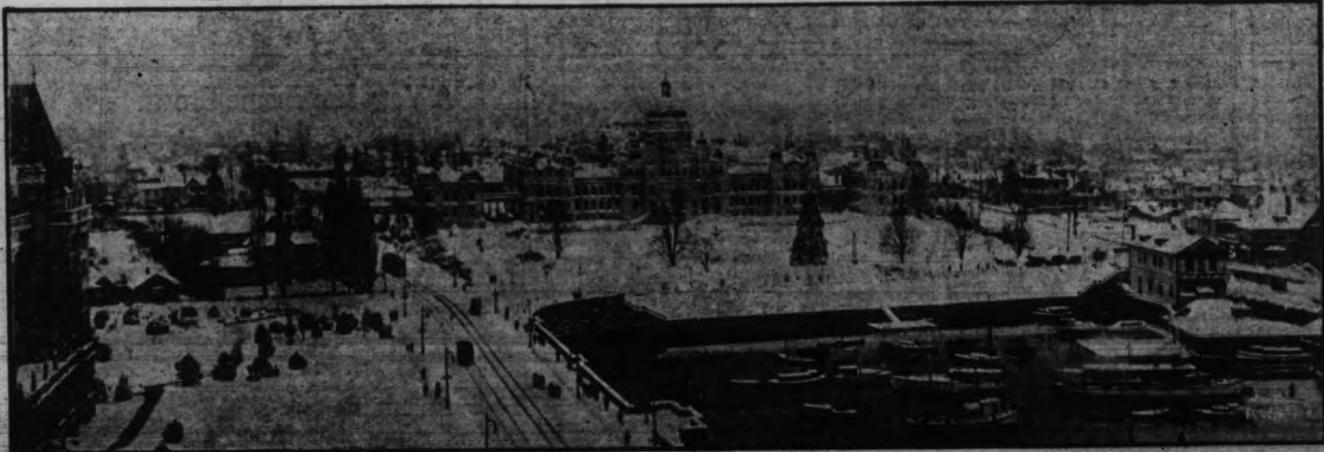

wards its citizens in this regard. Community 'sings' are an interesting means of developing musical appreciation and blend well with orchestral concerts. Properly supported, the community 'sings' and civic symphony orchestra concerts would aid powerfully in working a moral regeneration of a nation.

"Every wide-awake town in the country should have a civic symphony orchestra; size of population has not much to do with the idea, nor with its success. With proper backing and ideals behind it, a civic orchestra would succeed in any community large enough to bring out an audience."

MEN OF 29TH HOLD RE-UNION THURSDAY

Members of "Tobin's Tigers" Will Renew Old Associations

With the recent return of the men of the 29th Battalion who were left fighting when the last shot was fired, arrangements have been made for a reunion gathering as a welcome to the veterans who have just arrived home and to renew friendships made in the battlefields and camps after separations caused by the chances of war. The gathering will take place at the Knights of Pythias—Hall Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. As it is estimated that there are about 400 men who have served with the battalion in the city a good attendance is looked for. Opportunities for a renewal of comradeship among the veterans will be provided, and the exploits of the unit of the battlefields of France and the general stock of reminiscences of the last eventful five years reviewed. As a battalion of the Iron Sixth Brigade of the 2nd Division the Tigers number many men in their ranks who have taken part in the most important engagements in France. Lieutenant Wilmet, who won the M. C. for his work in a daring raid at St. Etloi is one of the veterans expected at the meeting. An effort will be made to have Lieutenant Col. Tobin, D. S. O., address the meeting. Major Slater, Frank Gloima, M. P., former members of the Battalion will also speak. Captain A. D. Crease will be in the chair.

Life buoys to be used in case any accident in the water have been placed on the Gorge Bridge by the Provincial Police. In the past these life buoys have been a continual source of trouble to the authorities, for they have constantly been stolen or thrown into the water by mischief makers. The police hope that people who have interfered with buoy belts in the past will be more considerate this year, and leave them on the bridge where they are obtainable whenever needed.

He recommends application to reputable firms like Carlson and Calow, Wilson Brothers, and Poison Brothers, logging operators, who are paying the Loyal Legion wage scale. The Times informant is in no way connected with any of the firms mentioned in the section, and desires it to be known he has no personal interest in any Gray's Harbor industry.

Weak, Nervous Children Quickly Gain Strength Under Following Plan
Nervousness, just like weakness, is a family predisposition. We inherit tendencies to disease just as we inherit physical resemblances. The strain of study, social duties, work at home—these all tend to make nervous troubles among children. No wonder that St. Vitus Dance, Epilepsy, and constant headaches have become alarmingly common. Pale, nervous listless young people are met everywhere.
It is nothing short of criminal for parents to neglect signs of weakness in their children. By ignoring the slightest symptom of nervous or mental strain, you may condemn your child to life-long invalidism: If any member of your family complains of Headaches, fear of going into dark places, give them that wonderful tonic, Ferronone.
Strength of body and mind, hardy nerves, ability to study with comfort, all the attributes of health quickly follow the use of Ferronone. It establishes strength, color, endurance, vim—does this by filling the whole system with nourishment and tissue-forming materials.
It's because we know the enormous good that Ferronone will do, because we are sure every child and even grown folk, will be permanently benefited, that we urge you to give it a trial. All dealers sell Ferronone in 50c. boxes, six for $2.50, or direct by mail from The Cattarhogue Co., Kingston, Ont.

Again President of W.C.T.U. Home

MRS. DAVID SPENCER

Thirty years ago the Victoria members of the W. C. T. U. established the Home which is still in active operation on Ida Street. At that time Mrs. David Spencer was elected president of the Home Committee, Mrs. W. H. Burkholder, Mrs. Noah Shakespeare and Mrs. Wm. Grant were appointed to the committee. Throughout the intervening years these pioneer members have continued their devoted work, and at the annual meeting held at the Home last evening were able to look back with pardonable pride and satisfaction on the fruits of their indefatigable service. Mrs. Spencer was elected president for the twenty-ninth time, thus entering on her thirtieth year in that office. Non-spectacular in its work, the home carries on a magnificent work in caring for women, girls and children who have met with misfortune in the battle of life. Interesting light was shed on this work in the report of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank Andrews, and the success of the home rebounds greatly to the credit of the matron and her assistants, as well as to the members of the W. C. T. U. and friends who assist in its maintenance. The official report was read by the treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Parsons. Mrs. Andrews was elected delegate to attend the provincial W. C. T. U. Convention to be held in Vancouver on June 7. At the conclusion of the business meeting tea was served.

MRS. BECKWITH IS CHOSEN PRESIDENT

Annual Meeting of Y. W. C. A. Elects Officers For Year

Mrs. J. A. Beckwith was re-elected president, by acclamation, of the Y. W. C. A. at the annual meeting of the Victoria branch held last night in the headquarters in the Stobart-Peace Block. Other officers elected were Mrs. Niven, treasurer; Miss Fawcett, recording secretary, and Miss Henderson, corresponding secretary, while Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Forman and Mrs. French were elected vice-presidents. The election of the Board of Directors resulted in the re-election of Mrs. French, Mrs. Staneland and Mrs. Rowlands, while new members of the Board included Mrs. H. Pendray, Mrs. C. Percy, Mrs. S. Sea, Mrs. Jackson Hanby and Mrs. K. Loftham.
Secretary's Report.
About thirty members were present at the meeting and the devotional exercises were led by the Rev. A. de B. Owen. A comprehensive survey of the year's work was given by Miss Ruid, the general secretary, in her report. Reference was made to the change of quarters, and to the financial and other advantages accruing from the change. That the Y. W. C. A. dining-room is a popular public institution was shown by the statement that $2,472 meals had been served during the year. Transient guests at the institution numbered 683, while 48 permanent boarders made it their home. It was pointed out that the new quarters contained twenty bedrooms, providing accommodation for thirty-three girls, and so comfortable were the general arrangements that all the rooms were usually occupied.
The Vesper Service during the year had been replaced by a Bible Class, which met each Sunday afternoon under the direction of women leaders. Other religious work undertaken by the members included support of a mission in India.
Library Popular.
Active and associate members of the "Y" number 350, with six life members, sixteen sustaining and fifteen juniors. Reference was made in the report to the library which is one of the popular privileges of the institution, and contains 417 volumes of good fiction. In this connection a special word of thanks was made to the Agnes Deans Cameron Chapter, I. O. D. E. whose contributions had helped to make the library complete. Another feature of the "Y" which proved exceedingly popular was the gymnasium class conducted by Miss Lena Cotworth with the assistance of Miss B. Harkness. A large number of women and girls had availed themselves of the assistance of the Employment Bureau in securing positions while excellent results in registration of fruit-pickers last year had been accomplished through the agency of Miss Mariatt, who this year was continuing her work under the jurisdiction of the Department of Labor.
Travellers' Aid.
The travellers' Aid report showed that 490 people had been assisted during the year and that 1659 boats and 329 trains had been met. The report of the Victoria Business Girls' report revealed the amount of Red Cross and other patriotic work accomplished by these girls in their few leisure hours. A special tribute was paid to Miss Cann who had kindly conducted a study in current literature.
Financial Statement.
The yearly financial statement pre-

FAILED TO CLOSE STORE

Lee Hoy Fined $20 in Police Court: Said He Was Too Busy to Close at 9 p.m.
On a charge of keeping his store open after 9 o'clock on Friday night last, Lee Hoy appeared in the police court this morning, and was fined $20 by Magistrate Jay.
One of the constables visited the store at the corner of Fort Street and Stanley Avenue at 9:40 o'clock and advised the Chinaman to close, and on re-visiting it half an hour later found it still open.
In defence Lee Hoy said that he was "too busy to close, and could not get the people out of the store."

Was Troubled With BOILS FOR SIX MONTHS

From the days of Job to the present time, boils have been one of the greatest afflictions of the human race. Very few people escape from having them at some time.
All the poulticing and lancing you may do won't cure them and stop more coming.
Boils are caused by bad blood bursting out, and the bad blood must be made pure before the boils will disappear.
Burdock Blood Bitters is the greatest blood purifier known. It cleanses the system, and purifies the blood by removing every particle of foul matter from the system, and when this is done, never another boil comes and health and strength are permanently restored.
Mr. C. H. Bridges, 470 Barton St. E., Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with boils for about six months and tried several remedies without any relief until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, and the effect has been wonderful. After using two bottles I was rid of them all. I feel like a new man; my appetite is better, and I sleep better than I have for years. I can highly recommend B. B. B. to all who are troubled with boils."
Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for the past forty years, and manufactured only by The T. Millbury Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WAR COMMITTEE ISSUES FINDINGS ON WOMEN'S STATUS

British Committee Recommends Equal Pay; State Care of Mothers; Pensions

Women's status in industry and the ever-recurring question as to whether equal pay should be accorded for equal work are matters which have been receiving the attention of reconstruction bodies all over the Dominion, and particularly in Victoria. By reason of its broad ramifications and the influence which it is likely to have upon conditions in Canada it is interesting to note the findings and recommendations of the British War Cabinet Committee on Women in Industry, just published in the British press.

Committee's Personnel.
Lord Justice Atkin was the chairman of the committee, which was appointed in September last by Mr. Lloyd George.
"To investigate and report upon the relation which should be maintained between the wages of women and men, having regard to the interests of both, as well as to the value of their work. The recommendations should have in view the necessity of output during the war and the progress and well-being of industry in the future."
The other members of the committee were Miss J. M. Campbell, M.D., Sir Lynden Livingstone Macassey, K.C., Sir William W. Mackenzie, K.C., Sir Matthew Nathan and Mrs. Sidney Webb.

Equal Pay For Equal Work.
Subjoined are the main recommendations of the committee:
1. Women doing similar or the same work as men should receive equal pay for equal work in the sense that pay should be in proportion to efficient output. On systems of payments by results equal payment should be made to women as to men for an equal amount of work done.
2. Relative value of work done by men and women on time on the same or similar jobs should be agreed between employers and trade unions acting through recognized channels of negotiation, such as Trade Boards or Joint Industrial Councils.

3. In every case in which the employer maintains that a woman's work produces less than a man's, the burden of proof should rest with the employer.
4. Where it is essential to employ men and women of the same grade, capacity and training, but where equal pay will not attract the same grade of man as of woman, it may be necessary to counteract the difference of attractiveness by the payment to married men of children's allowances.

It is further recommended that the Government should support the application to industry of "equal pay for equal work" by applying it with the least possible delay to their own establishments. As soon as any relation between the wages of men and women in any occupation or job has been agreed between employers and trade unions, the maintenance of that relation should be a condition of any Government contract involving the employment of workpeople in that occupation or job.

Factory Act Reform.
Further recommendations are made in respect to the principles which should govern the future employment and wages of women. These include the following:

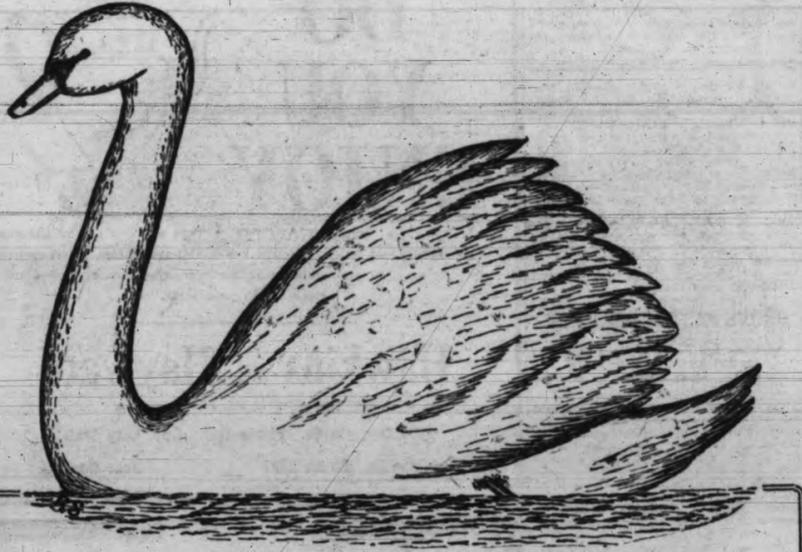

1. Substantial reform and extension in scope of Factory and Workshops Acts, with special reference to:
  - (a) Reduction in hours of work, including arrangements of spells and pauses, overtime and night work;
  - (b) Provision of seats, labor-saving devices, etc., to avoid unnecessary fatigue;
  - (c) Improved standard of sanitation, ventilation and general hygiene;
  - (d) Provision of canteens, rest-rooms and surgeries;
  - (e) General supervision of the health of the workers individually and collectively.
2. In order to secure and maintain physical health and efficiency, no normal woman should be employed for less than a reasonable subsistence wage.
This wage should be sufficient to provide a single woman over eighteen years of age in a typical district, where the cost of living is low, with an adequate dietary, with lodging, to include fuel and light, in a respectable house, not more than half an hour's journey (including tram or train) from the place of work, with clothing sufficient for warmth, cleanliness and decent appearance, with money for fares, insurance and trade union subscriptions, and with a reasonable sum for holidays, amusements, etc. Additions to this wage should be made for women working in the larger towns and in London to cover the greater cost of living.
4. Determination of the basic subsistence wage should be by a specially constituted authority, and should be adjusted periodically to meet variations in the cost of living. Subsistence wage so determined should be made statutory on the expiry of the Wages (Temporary Regulation) Act, 1918, and to apply to the employment for gain in all occupations (other than domestic service) for which a minimum wage has not been determined by an Industrial Council or by a Trade Board or other statutory authority.

Mothers' Pensions.
The committee suggest that the Government should consider the question of adopting a scheme of mothers' pensions for widows and for deserted wives with children and for the wives with children of men physically or mentally disabled. In addition, they recommend that the department or departments of Government concerned should draw up for the consideration of the Government:
"A scheme by which the entire direct costs involved by the lying-in of women under thoroughly satisfactory conditions should be provided by the State."
Departments making contracts on behalf of the Government are recommended to place the Ministry of Labor in a position to exercise some supervision over the due carrying out of the conditions of the Fair Wages Clause. Assistance of expert draftsmanship should always be available to those negotiating important industrial agreements.

TRADE OPPORTUNITIES WITH NEW ZEALAND

American Consul General Reports on Openings Across Pacific

Alfred A. Winslow, American Consul-General for New Zealand, describes New Zealand as having an area of slightly less than Great Britain and Ireland, with a population of 1,200,000. The principal cities are Auckland, 125,000; Wellington, 95,000; Christchurch, 92,000; and Dunedin, 70,000. His own office is located in Auckland, with agencies in each of the other cities named.

Consul Winslow declares the business men to be honest, conservative and reliable, buying principally from European sources either cash against documents at port of delivery or on time from thirty to ninety days. They do not take kindly to the pay-cash-against-documents-at-port-shipment plan of many American merchants, little business resulting from this method.

Exports From New Zealand. The exports of the country are wool, frozen meat, butter, cheese, tallow, sheepskins and hides. The foreign trade of the country is upwards of $130 per capita per annum, a conservative statement. The income of the country is $100,000,000 annually with one quarter derived from the railways. In 1918 America supplied 21 per cent. of the imports as against 9 per cent. in 1914. Much of this increase is due to war conditions and Consul Winslow warns American exporters if they wish to keep their advantage that they must quote New Zealand ports, e. i. l., the least possible being f. o. b. at port of shipment. He declares that American merchants have nothing to fear if they will treat the trade fairly and refrain from dumping shoddy goods for which the people will not stand.

Imports Into Country. Imports into New Zealand consist principally of manufactured articles, since there are but few factories in the dominion, save shoe factories and woollen mills, and it will be many years before these conditions are greatly changed, for wages are high, and there is more money in agriculture, stock raising and dairying. The imports for 1918 were valued at $117,324,488, against $108,362,991 for 1914; of which the United States supplied $24,238,821 and $11,110,054 respectively. During 1917 American manufacturers and producers supplied merchandise valued as follows: Shoes, $27,929; wearing apparel, $18,528; textiles, $662,130; mineral oils, $3,507,067; paints and varnishes, $202,644; metal manufactures other than machinery, $2,788,167; machinery, $1,814,014; leather and manufactures, $517,426; optical, surgical and scientific instruments, $89,625; drugs, chemicals, etc., $66,419; automobiles, motorcycles, etc., $2,894,645, and fresh and dried fruits, $892,353.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WALK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her to Health.

Perth Amboy, N. J.—"For three years I suffered with a severe female trouble, was nervous, had backache and a pain in my side most of the time. I had dizzy spells and was often so faint I could not walk across the floor. The doctor said I would have to have an operation. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my newspaper, and I tried it. Now I am better, feel strong, have no pains, backache or dizzy spells. Every one tells me how well I look, and I tell them to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—that is what makes me feel well and look well. I recommended it to my sister and she is using it now. You can use this letter if you wish, for it is certainly a grand remedy for a woman's ills."—Mrs. MARTHA STANISLAWSKI, 524 Penn St., Perth Amboy, N. J.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

SMOKING ON CARS.

To the Editor.—Kindly allow me a small space in your columns drawing your attention to the habit of smoking on the rear end of street cars, the Esquimault route in particular. I am a visitor here with my wife. We have occasion to use the Esquimault car frequently, and it is always the same, smoking going on as usual outside and inside of the car as well. To-day my wife and I boarded an Esquimault car at Head Street at 1:25, and the passengers at the rear end would not even get out of our way. Such things do not prevail in Toronto (our home). Now, Mr. Editor, surely this could be rectified. I think if the management would instruct the employees to carry the order out it would make things pleasant for the passengers who do not wish to smoke while traveling such a short distance to the city.

THE SYMPATHETIC STRIKE.

To the Editor.—As the trades union men of Victoria are to vote this week as to whether they will go out on strike in sympathy with the unions in Winnipeg or continue at work, it is well that they should know what they are taking. As a trades union member in British Columbia for the past twenty years—except the last four years, which was spent overseas—I have taken a more or less active part in a few strikes, and in no case has a sympathetic strike been justified and not one of them successful. The present situation is slightly out of the ordinary. We are asked to go out in sympathy with unions in a city fifteen hundred miles distant, and for a cause which is purely local.

Now if it was a case of assisting fellow-members on strike the only practical manner in which this could be done would be with funds—continue at work and levy your members. In that way we could render assistance, but to call out all the union men in Western Canada is detrimental to unionism. The object is to use the unions as a playground for propaganda work, and at this season when the soldier is returning and seeks to re-establish himself after spending several years of his life to save his country from despotic rule, are we going to submit to it in Canada? The Russian rule was "might is right," and that is the same rule that the trades unions are trying to enforce on industrial Canada to-day.

I can well remember while in the front line in France when we heard of strikes at home; the feeling was so intense that it would not have been well for any striker to have been within range. The co-operation of every citizen is just as essential in the reconstruction period as at any time during the war, and those who are agitating this strike are men Canada can well do without. The Metal Trades Council of Victoria has a signed working agreement with the Foundation Company, which affects three thousand men. Is it in the interests of unionism that this agreement be made a "scrap of paper" as to the honor of voting. I hope every union man who is not in favor of a strike will vote accordingly. If you are indifferent and do not vote at all your vote may be counted as in favor of a strike. We have recently had an example of this in the voting for the "One Big Union." The votes of all members who failed to vote were counted as votes for the "One Big Union." I ask, Mr. Editor, whether such methods going to bring unionism to "GODFREY."

The Allies and Russia

New Policy of the Big Four. By Dr. Harold Williams in The London Chronicle.

Have the Allied leaders at last evolved a Russian policy? It is hard to say. On the one hand we have Dr. Lloyd George's recent assurances that there are to be no negotiations with the Bolsheviks and that material support must be given to our friends Kolchak and Denikine.

Then, almost in the same breath, we are told that the Big Four have given to Dr. Nansen's plan for feeding Russia their formal consent, under conditions that necessarily involve negotiating, though indirectly, with the Bolsheviks, and withdrawing material support from our friends Kolchak and Denikine.

We, who do not breathe that serene upper air in which apparent contradictions are reconciled, can only painfully attempt to estimate the effect of those planetary influences on the terrestrial phenomena before our eyes.

Cause of Starvation.

I am for feeding Russia. I cannot link without sharp pain of the sufferings of Petrograd and Moscow. When I see the abundance and variety of food in London shops and restaurants I am ashamed to remember the starving in Russia; best fed cities are starving in Russia; and I would do anything to break down the horrible ban that prevents them, and all despairing Russians, from sharing in the bounty of a still-ordered world.

But it seems to me that the policy of the Big Four, as outlined in their reply to Dr. Nansen, simply postpones the day of deliverance. For it is based on the assumption that starvation in Russia is the cause of Bolshevism, whereas the exact contrary is the case—Bolshevism is the cause of starvation.

To describe how Bolshevism has brought the Russian towns to starvation would require a volume. I can only give one or two salient facts. On the admission of the Bolsheviks themselves, Soviet Russia, excluding the Ukraine, which has been occupied by the Red Army this year, is capable of supplying all the food requirements of the Russian towns. But during the first nine months of 1918, under the Bolsheviks, one million pounds (15,500 tons) of corn were brought into Petrograd, as compared with four million pounds (68,000 tons) in the corresponding period of 1917 (before the Bolsheviks).

The chief reason for the failure of supplies is the resolute and growing hostility of the peasants to Soviet methods, coupled with the blind determination of the Bolsheviks to enforce these methods at any cost. The "Izvestia" of the Food Supply Commissariat (or Ministry) for December, 1918, states that to overcome the "desperate resistance" of the peasantry to Soviet methods, several "red" detachments, to the number of 35,500 bayonets, were formed. The casualties of these food detachments from May to December were 7,593.

Attitude of the Peasantry. The attitude recent report from the Moscow "Izvestia" throws light on the attitude of the peasantry. An extraordinary tax of 750,000 roubles was imposed on the district of Trovarevskan near the Volga. Of this sum 300,000 was raised and sent to Moscow. Then the peasants revolted and killed over a hundred Bolshevik officials, while the rest fled to Moscow. The insurgents occupied the town and annihilated up the Communist club and the houses of members of the Soviet.

Two weeks later two regiments of "Internationalists," Lenin and Chinese, were sent to the district. The revolt was suppressed, 2,700 peasants being shot and 1,500 arrested. That is a typical incident, often repeated. This kind of thing largely accounts for the starvation of the towns. It must be remembered, further, that the Bolsheviks now have possession of the Ukraine, which formerly helped to feed Europe.

Now Kolchak and Denikine are trying to overthrow the regime that prevents Russia feeding herself in the only natural way, and so far they have been encouraged by the Allies. But suddenly the Big Four say: "We will let food into Russia from outside on condition that all hostilities are stopped and that 'the transfer of troops and military materials to and within the Russian territory' be suspended." What does this mean? Kolchak's armies are at this moment advancing rapidly from the Urals to the Volga. During the last month one army has advanced over 200 miles westward from Ufa. Less than another 100 miles will bring it to Samara, on the Volga.

Another force is moving almost as rapidly on Kazan, while in the north a third force is within striking distance of Viatska, now being evacuated by the Bolsheviks. The capture of Viatska, coinciding with the opening of the Northern Drive, would render possible an effective junction between the Siberian Army and Archangel, and the relief of our troops there. At the same time the capture of the Middle Volga by Kolchak would facilitate a junction between the Siberians and Denikine, whose northernmost troops are near Tzaritsyn, on the Lower Volga. Thus, in view of the breakdown of the Red Army in the East, are the real strategic possibilities of the immediate future. Relief for starving Moscow and Petrograd is in sight—from Russian resources.

But at this moment the Big Four say: "No. Stop fighting! Don't go far-

It really does not matter very much. Nothing will come of the scheme, except a certain added bitterness and disillusionment. No one will stop fighting. GLORIOUS TRIBUTE TO THE LATE BOBBY POWELL

A glowing tribute to the late "Bobby" Powell, the Victoria tennis player, whose death was so deeply mourned by followers of the net game, is paid in an article in The Daily Mail. After referring to the revival in lawn tennis, the article reads: "The tennis enthusiast, looking back on the grave of Anthony Wilding, who four times won the championship, not because he was initially a great player, but because he had the rare capacity for taking in finite pains that inevitably produces something akin to a genius. He sees the graves of the two Powells, R. B. and Kenneth, who though they were both left handed and frequently played together were in no way related. Kenneth Powell, though a man of means as the world counted it, preferred to be a private in the H. A. C., and gallantly died as such. "Bobby" Powell, that debonair Canadian, whose sunny nature made him friends wherever he went, is mourned in two continents."

P. C. BOWLING TOURNAMENT.

San Francisco, May 22.—The "Poppies" bowling team from Stockton up to to-night, was leading in the fifth annual tournament of the Pacific Coast Bowling Association which has been in progress here several days with a score of 2,761. The Olympic Club No. 1 team of San Francisco was second, 2,748; Oakland, Maryland, 2,707; third, Flora O'Baltimores of San Diego 2,684 fourth, and Standifer Construction Company, Portland, 2,671 fifth. No changes in the singles and doubles were announced.

FIRST CRICKET MATCH SIXTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO AT BEACON HILL

Earliest Game Here; One of Players Was Afterwards Notable Explorer

Whatever may be the most popular game in Victoria to-day, there does not seem to be any doubt that the earliest organized match was between two cricket teams.

The circumstance is not surprising in view of the early associations of the navy with this station, for except the Hudson's Bay Company's settlers when the first cricket match took place at Beacon Hill just sixty-seven years ago to-morrow, there were no other persons resident capable of organizing games. So it came about that the first struggle for supremacy took place on May 29, 1852, between a local eleven known as "All Vancouver" and a team from H. M. S. Thetis, whose memory is perpetuated in Thetis Cove, in which encounter the naval men obtained an easy victory.

There played in that match, a game which was to be the predecessor of many another in which naval men participated through the generations which have followed, Lieutenant John Moresby, who as Admiral Moresby has won a permanent place in history, and particularly in the realm of discovery. His name marks the capital of New Guinea, or as it is now known officially, Papua. To his explorations in the Basileik geography owes its early knowledge of that wild, dark island whose recesses are yet but imperfectly explored, and where the world is still started occasionally by savage murders of the white intruders. Admiral Moresby rose rapidly after leaving this station, and his services elsewhere gained him considerable fame, notably the discovery and charting of numerous small islands in the Papuan Archipelago.

AFTER HIS SERVICES

According to word received from the mainland arrangements were completed yesterday by Pete Muldoon, business manager of the Terminals, the new lacrosse club which will battle New Westminster in a 12-game series for the famous Minto Cup, whereby "Cotton" Brynjolfson, who is managing the Foundation stickhandlers, will in all probability line up with the Terminals in the race this season. Muldoon expects him to line up with the Terminals in the first game of the series which will be played at Athletic Park, Vancouver, next Saturday afternoon.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS

PREPARE FOR SPORTS

Arrange Dance to Secure Funds For Tennis and Baseball Equipment

Convalescent patients at Esquimalt Military Hospital have drafted out an ambitious programme of sports for the summer months and have set out on a campaign to raise funds to purchase the necessary equipment for tennis, baseball and also for other summer sports suitable for the less active of the returned men at the hospital. The Sports and Recreation Committee has been re-organized with Major O'Hagan as honorary president, Cyril Platt as president, Jack Devlyn, Frank Younson, L. C. Mount, H. Bass and Sergeant O'Hagan as members. The committee has been charged with the responsibility of providing equipment for the sports and generally recreation which the men are able to indulge in according to their injuries. The first effort will be a dance at the Alexandra Club, Wednesday, June 4, and the "blue band boys" are working hard to make their first effort for the sports fund a success.

"We want to raise enough money," says the enthusiastic president, "so that all the boys will have some outdoor sport for the summer." The loss of one leg has put him out of a lot of sports that he formerly used to take part in, but, he states, "as though some of us are on crutches, we are able to get in a lot of other games besides poker. Some of the more seriously wounded players manage to play croquet, which was one of the popular sports last summer. We are hoping this summer to secure a set of bowls. The Victoria Lawn Bowling Club generously extended an invitation to use their lawns and the bowls at Beacon Hill, but the long walk from the hospital prevents the men from taking the trip down town as often as they would like. That is why we are anxious to build up a sports fund, so that we can provide recreation and sports for the men right in the hospital grounds." The dance will be the first effort of the committee and they are hoping to raise enough money to give the fund a good send off.

TYEES' FORMIDABLE LINE-UP TO MEET BOB BROWN'S BOYS

Armstrong, Zinkie and Corrigan Re-join Victoria Club

Ted Easterly, the player manager of the Tyees, will have more support for the series commencing this afternoon with Vancouver than he has had in any of the games this season. The Vancouver aggregation is judged by many to be the strongest team in the race for the bunting and Ted will need all the assistance he can get. The home club has a pitching staff now that looks better than it ever did before, and Manager Jim now has five twirlers on his payroll to carry him through to the top of the ladder. Vancouver has practically the same line-up as that which played here on the last occasion.

With Harry Morton pitching the first game of the series, Brown will have John Washington to draw on for the evening game. John is a big burly lad from Walla Walla, and was in the Northwestern League in 1914-1917. He has been playing shipyard baseball for Todd's Nines, which has won every game they have played this season. He struck out fourteen against Skinny and Eddy last Saturday. Alexander will probably pitch to-morrow against the Tyees at the home of McEvoy for the evening game. McEvoy, however may not arrive until next week, although he is trying hard to get over from Seattle in time for the series.

Jim Brown's trip to Seattle brought results that will please the home fans. George Armstrong, Sharkey Corrigan and Zinkie, who strayed from the fold, buried the hatchet, held a happy little Re-union with the manager and came back with Washington and Alexander and Lefty McEvoy. Brown carries a lot of ball players, "but," he says, "we are out to win games and not Victoria on top." The increased schedule made an increase to the Tyees' hurling staff an absolute necessity. Morton is going great, but there is the danger always prevalent of overworking a good pitcher to be guarded against.

Given a good spell of weather, record crowds to offset the small holiday attendance through the rainy weather are anticipated.

Tommy Moore

Tommy Moore

Vancouver, May 28.—"Kid" Carson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has fought his way into the hearts of Edmonton fight fans in several bouts recently, is in Vancouver and will be at the King's Bazaar at the Arena this evening. Carson and Tommy Moore, of Nanaimo, are billed to fight fifteen rounds at Nanaimo on Monday evening next. Moore claims the welterweight championship of Canada. He is a returned soldier and is popular in the Coal City.

Carson put up three great fights with Al Ross, twice in Edmonton and once in Lethbridge. So even were these fighters that each won a bout and one was declared a draw. Carson stopped Sergeant Bogart in the fifth round of their scrap.

Carson was born in Calgary, but his athletic prowess has taken him all over the continent and he has done most of his fighting in Brooklyn. He has agreed to make the welterweight limit of 145 pounds at Nanaimo.

BOBBY HARPER STILL UNBEATEN LIGHTWEIGHT

Seattle, May 27.—Bobby Harper is still an undefeated lightweight. Danny Frush, the clever little Hebrew from London, failed to dent the local lad's record to-night when these two 133-pounders fought to a draw at the Arena. As usual the best bouts of the card were not at the top of the bill, Danny Edwards and Bud Ridley figured in a whirlwind go, with a battle between Lloyd Madden and Jimmy Story furnishing the merriest affair of the evening. Both were draws.

GEORGE INGLE ON HIS WAY TO AUSTRALIA

Seattle, May 27.—George Ingle, the Seattle lightweight, leaves for Vancouver to-morrow morning, en route to Manila, where he has been matched for a twenty-round go with a boy named Edwards, the Australian lightweight champion, on July 4. The local boy is also lined up for three other bouts in the Antipodes, according to word received by him to-day. After the Manila match he will go to Sydney, Australia, to box and later to Melbourne.

Ingle is not a stranger to long distance contests, having fought in twelve-round bouts in Hawaii before he appeared in Seattle.

San Francisco, May 27.—K. O. Krusovky, local heavyweight, won his bout with Frank Farmer, a northern fighter, by a shade in a four-round bout here to-night. Both men fought vigorously to the final going.

Joe Benjamin, another visitor from the north, won his fight with "Young" France, of Los Angeles, by a narrow margin.

DAREDEVIL CYCLIST IS CRITICALLY ILL

New York, May 28.—One of the biggest Sunday crowds Vancouverland Park has ever known, which included the wife and baby of Daredevil Max Schreyer, saw the famous cyclist crash into the side of a huge tank there this afternoon, when he missed his wild leap for life down a steeply-graded 90-foot incline, fracturing his skull, breaking an arm and receiving serious internal injuries. His condition is critical. Staring at the top of his narrow incline, 142 feet above the ground, Schreyer's bicycle darted forward for the leap and down—the water tank below.

HANK GOT GLAD HAND FROM ADMIRING FANS

Boston, May 26.—More than 15,000 admirers cheered Harry ("Hank") Gowdy when he took his place behind the bat Saturday for the Boston National League Club in the game with Cincinnati, for the first time since his return from overseas. Mayor Peters presented him with a gold watch and $500 in Victory bonds. "Buck" Herzog then presented him with a steamer trunk from his teammates. Gowdy was acclaimed the first major league player to enter the army.

ROYAL VICTORIA

"The Unpardonable Sin," which is the attraction at the Royal Victoria again to-day, is a moving picture attraction which people who have followed the development of the screen as a medium for the presentation of really big dramatic ideas cannot afford to miss. There have been many unqualified expressions of opinion to the effect that "The Unpardonable Sin" is the greatest photoplay ever produced and there is no denial of the statement that it ranks with such attractions as "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance" and "Hearts of the World," all of which are outstanding successes in the realm of moving pictures.

"The Unpardonable Sin" was completed on the Pacific Coast a few weeks ago at a time when there were assembled in Los Angeles practically all of the big men of the motion picture industry and it was before an audience composed of these men that the photoplay was first exhibited. The consensus of opinion was that "The Unpardonable Sin" was big in every sense of the word—big in the story told, big in its manner of telling and big in the work of Blanche Sweet, the star, and the players who support her. This early opinion has been more than confirmed by the reviews of moving picture critics in New York, who have recently been afforded the opportunity of passing judgment upon it.

The story is by Major Rupert Hughes and it first appeared in serial form in the Red Book. The complete book was published not long after and at once established itself as a "best seller." While dealing with subject matter related to the recent World War, the picture is in no sense a "war picture," being entirely devoid of battle scenes, etc. The tale is merely one of love and adventure, written in the style which Rupert Hughes, better than any other living American author, knows how to use. Blanche Sweet appears as a winsome American girl possessed not only of girlish charm but also of the nerve, temper and aggressiveness which is characteristic of the modern American girl. Matt Moore is just a plain, everyday American lad of the type that may be met anywhere in the United States. The obstacles these two surmount in their efforts to penetrate a hostile country in search of two defenceless women upon whom has been perpetrated "the unpardonable sin" are pictured to provide a screen story that keeps audiences everywhere on the very edges of their seats.

FAMOUS DANSEUSE IS DELIGHTING AUDIENCES AT PANTAGES: RUTH ST. DENIS

For more than a score of years Ruth St. Denis has appeared on the biggest vaudeville circuits of this continent and in Europe without speaking a word. She has been starred as America's premier danseuse.

But Ruth St. Denis was not always a dancer. She began her stage career under the tutelage of David Belasco as an actress. She had lines to speak in many productions before she made her debut as a dancer.

And now after all these years—Ruth St. Denis is again to take a dramatic part in a production—with lines to speak and gestures to go through with like any other actress.

The production is "Miriam, Daughter of Moses," to be staged at the famous open air Greek Theatre at the University of California in Berkeley, the first and second of August. The story was written by Constance Armfield, London authoress. She is the wife of Maxwell Armfield, the celebrated London artist, who designed and executed the scenic effects in the dance series which Miss St. Denis and her own company of artists are presenting at the Pantages Theatre this week in Victoria.

The Greek Theatre production will be the most pretentious that has ever been attempted in the way of pageantry. There will be nearly a thousand in the cast.

Ruth St. Denis is to take the leading part, and will play opposite her husband, Ted Shawn, who is remembered in Victoria as her dancing partner when she appeared here three years ago.

And not alone is this the first time Ruth St. Denis has had a speaking part on the stage, but she has only less than three weeks after the close of her present vaudeville tour to master her lines. She has been studying her part during her last week's engagement in Vancouver, and will continue to spend her leisure hours in Victoria, pouring over the lines of the play.

When the present vaudeville contract with Alexander Pantages is completed in Los Angeles the first week of July, Miss St. Denis will say farewell forever to the vaudeville stage and devote her time to Greater Denishawn and artistic productions which she has been endeavoring to find time to stage for the past five years.

The Royal Siamese ballet, which is being presented by her company of girl dancers this week is one of the novelty terpsichorean bits created by Miss St. Denis. This dance is new to the world, and is an exact replica of the costumes and dances of the Siamese. When this dance was offered in New York this season, theatrical managers besieged Miss St. Denis to sell them the dance idea for production in London and Australia next year.

Miss St. Denis is entertaining a proposition to send her company abroad next season in a series of new dance creations of her own.

CHURCHES ENTERTAIN OAK BAY VETERANS

Pleasant Social Affair to Welcome War Heroes of District

A splendid welcome was tendered to the returned men of the Oak Bay district last night, when the congregations of three churches in the district, the St. Columba Presbyterian, St. Mary's Anglican and Hampshire Road Methodist, got together at St. Columba Church for the purpose. Rev. T. S. Baynes, pastor of the last named church, acted as master of ceremonies.

Councillor J. J. Shallicross, on behalf of the Oak Bay Council, extended the formal greeting to the men of the district who had served overseas, paying them a high tribute for their bravery and service to their country. Colonel Anders replied in a few neat and appropriate remarks. The Oak Bay Council was represented by Messrs. Shallicross, Niven, Drake and Mallett.

The evening passed very pleasantly and everyone enjoyed the informal manner in which the affair was conducted. Songs and instrumental selections enlivened the proceedings, and vocal selections by the Misses Hunt, Mrs. Lefevre, Mrs. Harry Briggs and Mr. Wright were very greatly appreciated, as were the instrumental numbers by Messrs. Lakin and Oliver. Master Norman Buckle gave a clever recitation entitled "The Ambitious Student."

The ladies of the three churches provided refreshments, the serving of which formed the concluding item in a social programme which was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present.

NOW PREPARED TO SEND DELEGATION TO THE CAPITAL

Representative Meeting Decides to Wage Determined Fight for Drydock

As soon as Dr. S. F. Tolmie, M. P., feels that such action is necessary, a delegation composed of three citizens of Victoria will leave for Ottawa to support him in his fight for the Esquimalt drydock. At a meeting of business men and representatives of various public bodies held late yesterday afternoon in the City Council Chamber, Mayor Porter presiding, the whole drydock issue was considered in detail and the decision to send a deputation to Ottawa if Dr. Tolmie wished it, was reached.

Colonel the Hon. E. G. Prior traced briefly the history of the Esquimalt drydock project and stated that it was simply justice that the Government should go ahead with the scheme as promised.

"We want this drydock built at Esquimalt not simply because it has been promised to us for years, but because we don't want to see our streets filled with unemployed men this winter," declared J. O. Cameron, President of the Board of Trade.

An active lobby was being maintained by Vancouver, J. D. O'Connell pointed out to the meeting. It might be advisable for Victoria to send a deputation to the capital to push its claims and support Dr. Tolmie.

A new turn to the discussion resulted from the query of Charles J. V. Spratt, President of the Harbour and Marine Company, who wished to know if all hope of getting the drydock built by private enterprise had been abandoned. Would a delegation sent to Ottawa, he asked, interfere with private interests in their effort to go ahead with the scheme?

Mayor Porter replied that he would prefer to see the dock in private control but so many attempts to interest private capital had failed that it was time at the eleventh hour to concentrate all efforts on the Government.

A British contracting firm of solid financial backing was even now prepared to build a drydock on the Coast, pursued Mr. Spratt, and whether it located in Victoria or Vancouver was immaterial to it at present. Mr. Spratt understood that one of the officials of the company would visit the Coast in the course of a couple of weeks, and definite plans would probably be formulated then as to the location of the dock.

"At present the company does not care whether it locates in Victoria or Vancouver," said Mr. Spratt, "but if Victoria sends a delegation to Ottawa arguing the Government to build the drydock to the exclusion of all private parties, then I contend that such action will be prejudicial to this city's best

TO URGE ACTION ON EXTENSION OF COURSE

Inspector Paul to Discuss With University Question of Two-Year Course

In an endeavor to secure action which will result in the extension of the university course at the local High School to two years, Municipal Inspector Paul left for Vancouver to-day. Mr. Paul is a member of the committee of the B. C. University appointed to investigate the reason for the attendance of so few Victoria students at the University. So far this committee has not met.

When Mr. Paul meets the B. C. University authorities to-morrow to urge an extension of the present college course at the High School from one to two years, he will have behind him the strong backing of the Victoria school authorities. Members of the School Board have declared recently that conditions were more satisfactory when the local college course was affiliated with McGill University and included two years of work; that few Victoria students attended the B. C. University because the local course as followed by the Provincial institution lasted but one year, and that the remedy would be to add another year to the present course.

Mr. Paul will point out to the University Senate that an extraordinarily small number of Victoria students attended the B. C. University at present, whereas when the High School was affiliated with McGill University many students took two years of the course here and then proceeded to the East to finish their work. This, it will be argued, is largely due to the fact that McGill allowed two years while the B. C. University allows only one year to be taken locally. It will be contended that when a student is allowed to pursue his university studies for two years at home he will naturally be inclined to conclude his course and take his degree. On the other hand, if he is allowed to take only one year at home, as is the case at present, he is more likely to forego the university work altogether. If he should do the first year's work here he will be much more likely to drop out than if he had done two year's work. To support these contentions, Mr. Paul will point out that last year not one student who took the first year's university work at the local High School proceeded to the university to conclude his studies. On the other hand, he will observe, large numbers of students proceeded to Eastern or American universities for the same cause, it is claimed, the B. C. University

PLEASING PROGRAMME GIVEN LAST NIGHT

Mrs. Macdonald Fahey and Miss Maude Scruby Assist at Concert

To a regrettably small audience a delightful programme was presented at the Empress Hotel last night under the auspices of the Local Council of Women. Although financially the concert could not have been a pronounced success, from the musical standpoint it was one of the most pleasing of winter's many events, and the enthusiasm of the audience was extended in full measure to the artists who gave of their best.

Miss Maude Scruby, the well-known 'cellist, was featured on the programme contributing two groups of 'cello numbers in addition to 'cello obligatos for several of the vocal selections. Equipped with a comprehensive knowledge of technique, this artist commanded a full, singing tone from her instrument. Her second group of numbers, the Rondos, "Samson" and "Dellah" (Satin-Sens), a number which was perhaps a little ambitious for so young a sister, and her voice was heard at its best in her second group of numbers, "Starlight," by Herman Lohr being a particularly lovely bit of melody. Miss Lotis Griffiths has a fine mezzo voice, full of color, and her singing of Godard's "Berceuse," with 'cello obligato, was one of the most pleasing numbers on the programme.

Miss Nora Southwell is possessed of a contralto of excellent quality, and was heard in four songs of which Ashford's, "My Task" was perhaps the most popular, this number being sung with a nice devotional expression, which suited its semi-religious theme. Miss Mona Miesner has a soprano of liquid, flexible quality and her singing of the aria from Puccini's "Madame Butterfly" revealed great promise as a dramatic soprano. Charming expression marked her interpretation of Rabey's "Tea Teux."

A fitting climax to the evening's entertainment was furnished by the singing of Mrs. Macdonald Fahey who arranged the programme, and who, by special request, contributed a group of three numbers. She was in excellent voice, and in response to repeated demands for an encore sang the Irish ballad, "The Kerry Dance" with pleasing expression. Tribute to her splendid work on behalf of many patriotic and philanthropic causes in the past was paid in the shape of a beautiful bouquet of pink carnations and roses presented by little Miss Myra Jean Galbraith, on behalf of "The Women of Victoria."

MRS. WINTERBURN TO CHRISTEN NEXT SHIP

Canada Will Be Launched From Point Hope Yard at 7.30 p.m. on Monday

Mrs. W. G. Winterburn, wife of the Victoria representative of the Bureau Veritas, will act as sponsor to the wooden steamship Canada, which vessel will be launched from the Point Hope yard of the Foundation Company at 7.30 o'clock on Monday night.

Officially known as Hull 206, the Canada was the last of the first batch of four ships to be laid down at the Point Hope plant. Under the present contract three vessels have already been put afloat from this yard and three others from the Point Ellice plant, the ship Ontario being the last of the French fleet to be sent down the ways. Six additional ships have since been laid down at the two yards, making a total of fourteen vessels, including those previously launched, now under way.

PAINTERS NOW WANT INCREASE IN WAGES

While the vote of the labor unions on the question of a general strike in sympathy with the Winnipeg organizations will not be available before the end of the week there is a murmur of impending trouble in the industrial atmosphere. It is understood that the painters have decided to register a demand for an extra fifty cents a day to bring the scale up to an even $4.00.

Big Troop Carrier To Be Held in Quarantine

C.P.O. LINER EMPRESS OF RUSSIA

TROOPS ON RUSSIA TO BE QUARANTINED

Outbreak of Smallpox Necessitates Detention of Siberian Men 14 Days

Owing to the development of two cases diagnosed as smallpox and an additional case of scarlet fever, the C. P. O. S. transport Empress of Russia, conveying fifty-eight officers and 1,466 men of the Canadian Siberian Expeditionary Force from Vladivostok, will, upon her arrival at William Head tonight, be held in quarantine and the returning soldiers detained for the regulation period.

Inquiry at military headquarters this morning elicited the information that no details had been received from the ship and that the authorities had not been notified as to the identity of the two men stricken with the scourge. It is presumed, however, that the cases are not serious, but the fact that smallpox has been contracted during the voyage will necessitate the detention of the troops at the quarantine station for fourteen days. There is adequate accommodation for the large body of troops at William Head and it is expected that the commissariat department will be taken charge of by the Army Service Corps. Under the quarantine regulations the transportation company is usually responsible for the care of passengers, but as this is an exceptional case there is every indication that the troops will be looked after by the military authorities.

JOINT RAILROAD OFFICES LIKELY

Upon Reversion of United States Lines to Private Ownership

In view of the semi-official reports being circulated to the effect that the United States railroads will shortly revert to private ownership, speculation is reviving here regarding the probability of the re-opening of transportation offices by the American lines formerly located in Victoria.

It is said that all railroad systems across the border, which two years ago were taken over by the United States Government as a war measure, will again be placed under private ownership by the late summer or fall. Before the United States entered the war the Great Northern Railway, the Northern Pacific Railway and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, maintained offices in this city, but when the American lines were placed under Government control all outside offices were considered superfluous and with the reorganization the local offices of the Northern Pacific and Chicago-Milwaukee were dispensed with and the agency of the Government lines transferred to the office of the Great Northern.

REINSTATEMENT OF ORDERS PROMISED

Hurley Concedes Injustice to Pacific Coast Shipbuilders

Washington, May 28.—Reinstatement of contracts with Pacific Coast shipyards which may have been unjustly treated in the cancellation of orders for steel ships since the signing of the armistice was promised by Chairman Hurley, of the Shipping Board, at a conference to-day, with west coast shipbuilders and Senators and Representatives from California, Washington and Oregon.

The builders told the Shipping Board that they had not been fairly treated and Mr. Hurley conceded that probably some individual injustices had resulted from the suspension of contracts. Harrison Robinson, of San Francisco, spokesman for the builders, said 1,745,924 tons of steel vessels had been built by the eighteen Pacific Coast yards between August 3, 1917, and May 15, 1919, or fifty-five per cent. of the total production in the United States during that time. When it came to cancellation, he said, the Board had left the yards with 750,000 tons of contracts, cancelling 765,000, whereas on the Atlantic Coast, 2,250,000 tons were being built. Pacific Coast costs, he said, were $199 a ton, while at Hog Island they averaged $25 per ton on the first seven months.

INDIGNANT PEOPLE WILL BOYCOTT IF FOUND NECESSARY

St. James Church Starts Movement That is to Become General

HIGH COST OF LIVING GETS SEVERE SCORING

High cost of living came in for a general assault last night at the meeting of James Bay residents in Connaught Seaman's Institute called by St. James Church. Some home truths were spoken by men and women respecting exorbitant prices, short-weighting, profiteering, extravagant overhead charges in connection with the handling of food and other necessary home supplies, and many other injustices and hardships which the consumer was made to suffer under present conditions.

The meeting passed no resolutions, but there was very free discussion and it did not take very many minutes after the introductory remarks by Rev. T. Archibald, the pastor, for those present to find voice to express their sentiments in no uncertain manner. A committee comprised of John Nute, J. E. McKie, W. H. Hudson, Mrs. Higgins, W. F. Povah and W. Gale was named to gather information respecting prices of butter and other farm produce on the prairies and fruit in the Okanagan with a view to establishing a distribution depot here through which James Bay residents can buy direct from the consumer at the lowest possible price.

Who is Responsible?
It was decided that it was preferable to encourage local producers if their prices were made to compare reasonably with other places. The committee was asked to investigate every phase of the situation and particularly to find out if possible who was responsible for the present exorbitant prices of food commodities. If no relief can be found in the local or prairie markets then the residents are quite prepared to resort to a boycott. One thing the meeting demonstrated clearly was that there was no intention of further attempting to do the impossible by trying to continue under present price conditions.

The unpalatable attitude of certain sections of so-called local labor which has been enjoying the highest pay in the land during the whole war, is now proposed to inflict a "sympathetic strike" and its consequent suffering and inconvenience upon the vast majority of the people who are more entitled to the name of worker than they are, is the "last straw," said one speaker. "We are driven together in self-protection." The committee will report to a meeting to be held next Monday and if the strike goes into effect James Bay expressed the hope that by the time Fowl Bay and Victoria West residents would be organized so that the three districts would be enabled to coordinate its efforts toward alleviating the aggravated injustices mentioned by the speakers.

While the meeting was called for the purpose of dealing with the situation as it stands at present, considerable discussion took place respecting ways and means of overcoming the possibility of a repetition of such a situation where living has become next to impossible on the average income of the household.

Community Production.
Community production and co-operative buying and selling was considered by some of the speakers to be the only solution and plans are already on foot for the working out of such schemes. While it was stated it would take time to initiate such schemes, there was a great deal that could be done in the meantime by a combine of the people formed for the purpose of tapping the cheapest food markets, it was explained.

Attention was called to the fact that at a time when there was a surplus of millions of bushels of potatoes in Canada and the United States over what these countries could consume or export, the United States Government had been approached with a view to establishing a minimum price, which that Government considerably set at $20 a ton, with the result that common potatoes were being sold ever since around $2.50, whereas just before the minimum was set they were going as low as 50 cents a sack.

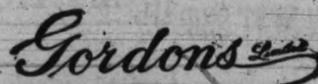

The fact that when prairie butter was selling here at 60 cents and local butter at 75 cents, it was possible, despite the high shipping rates, to bring in New Zealand butter to sell it at 65 cents, was also commented on.

While cotton before the war was a drug on the market which compelled the American traders to devise all sorts of schemes to get rid of it, some of the speakers failed to understand why there had been no reduction in the price of materials even from the figures that were ridiculous for war time.

Tannery Wanted.
It was also noted that though prices of footwear were so outrageous and the material even at that was almost worthless, hides in this country brought next to nothing, and one of the suggestions for future discussion was the re-establishment of a tannery for Vancouver Island.
